

HKDSE English Paper 2

Sample questions on Learning English through Short Stories

Compiled by Melinda Lo

I : Question types:

A. on reading and appreciating short stories

1. A student at your school has posted this blog on the Intranet for your school:

I really can't see why we study short stories. Nobody writes them anymore and nobody reads them. They hardly prepare us for a job – Electives like Workplace Communication are much more useful. I say get rid of the Language Arts Electives and give us more courses that will prepare us for work.

Kathy

Write a letter in response to this, either agreeing or disagreeing with Keith. Do not give an address and sign your letter 'Billy Ho.'

2. "The best way to improve one's English is to read short stories." Do you agree or disagree with this statement?

Write an article for your school magazine expressing your viewpoints on learning English through short stories.

3. Your English teacher, Miss Thomson, wants to interest students in short stories. She has asked you to think of ways to get students interested in them.

Write a proposal to your teacher explaining what kinds of short stories would appeal to students nowadays (think about the kinds of story plots, characters, central themes and conflict they would like). Give advice to Miss Thomson on how she should promote books of short stories to students, for example, by developing a website, a poster, a trailer or a Podcast.

4. You are the chairperson of the school English Club. Your club wants to organize a creative writing class for Secondary 1 students. The aim of the class is to teach them how to write short stories and help them improve their English.

Write a proposal to the school principal, explaining how the class will be conducted. Tell the principal what the students will learn and how they can benefit from the short stories writing class.
