United States Declaration of Independence The United States of America Congress Assembled, 2014-10-01 The Declaration of Independence is the usual name of a statement adopted by the Continental Congress on July 4 1776 which announced that the thirteen American colonies then at war with Great Britain regarded themselves as thirteen newly independent sovereign states and no longer a part of the British Empire Instead they formed a new nation the United States of America John Adams was a leader in pushing for independence which was unanimously approved on July 2 A committee of five had already drafted the formal declaration to be ready when Congress voted on independence The term Declaration of Independence is not used in the document itself Adams persuaded the committee to select Thomas Jefferson to compose the original draft of the document which Congress would edit to produce the final version The Declaration was ultimately a formal explanation of why Congress had voted on July 2 to declare independence from Great Britain more than a year after the outbreak of the American Revolutionary War The national birthday Independence Day is celebrated on July 4 although Adams wanted July 2 After ratifying the text on July 4 Congress issued the Declaration of Independence in several forms It was initially published as the printed Dunlap broadside that was widely distributed and read to the public The source copy used for this printing has been lost and may have been a copy in Thomas Jefferson s hand Jefferson s original draft complete with changes made by John Adams and Benjamin Franklin and Jefferson s notes of changes made by Congress are preserved at the Library of Congress The most famous version of the Declaration is a signed copy that is popularly regarded as the official document is displayed at the National Archives in Washington D C This engrossed copy was ordered by Congress on July 19 and signed primarily on August 2 The sources and interpretation of the Declaration have been the subject of much scholarly inquiry The Declaration justified the independence of the United States by listing colonial grievances against King George III and by asserting certain natural and legal rights including a right of revolution Having served its original purpose in announcing independence references to the text of the Declaration were few for the next four score years Abraham Lincoln made it the centerpiece of his rhetoric as in the Gettysburg Address of 1863 and his policies Since then it has become a well known statement on human rights particularly its second sentence We hold these truths to be self evident that all men are created equal that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights that among these are Life Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness This has been called one of the best known sentences in the English language containing the most potent and consequential words in American history The passage came to represent a moral standard to which the United States should strive This view was notably promoted by Abraham Lincoln who considered the Declaration to be the foundation of his political philosophy and argued that the Declaration is a statement of principles through which the United States Constitution should be interpreted It provided inspiration to numerous national declarations of independence throughout the world Historian David Armitage after examining the influence of the American Declaration on over 100 other declarations of independence says The American Revolution was the first outbreak of the contagion of sovereignty that has swept the world in the centuries since 1776 Its influence spread first to the Low Countries and then to the Caribbean Spanish America the Balkans West Africa and Central Europe in the decades up to 1848 Declarations of independence were among the primary symptoms of this contagion of sovereignty
