Introduction to Literary Devices

Assignment Directions:

1. Write a vignette or short story at least one page in length (500 words)
2. SAVE your original version to turn in for comparison to your revised copy.
3. Make another copy to revise.
4. Find spots where there are feelings in the story. These are the easiest to revise.
5. Try using the literary devices you studied to create that feeling. For example, if the feeling is punchy anger, what sounds feel like punchy anger? What words have those sounds in them?
6. Use metaphor or simile (you will learn these in more depth later, but try them). How might what you are writing about be compared to something else to help the reader imagine it?
7. Turn in BOTH copies, the original version and the revised version, so that a comparison can be seen. Highlight the sections you have changed.

Assignment Guidelines:

Your submission should:

- Contain an original copy of your vignette/story and a revised copy
- Add literary devices for your revision copy
- Follow the conventions of correct grammar, punctuation and spelling

Assignment Rubric:

Element	Points Possible	Points Earned	Feedback
The submission includes TWO versions of the vignette, each at least one page long (500 words)	20
The second version includes substantial changes using literary devices	60
The second version includes metaphors and similes	10
Spelling, grammar, punctuation, and sentence structure	10
Total	100
