Luther S Rhetoric:

Understanding Martin Luther's Demonological Rhetoric in His Treatise Against the Heavenly Prophets (1525)

Harold Ristau, 2010 Martin Luther's rhetoric of the demonic in his treatise Against the Heavenly Prophets in the Matter of Images and Sacraments 1525 expresses a soteriological argument regarding the necessary relation between the two realms of faith and works which he reformulates as the proper relationship between justification and sanctification This book builds upon the revisionist approaches of interdisciplinary studies by applying the concerns of rhetoric and linguistics as new tools of research in the field of Reformation Studies

Bobbitt, 2007-02-16 Martin Luther King Jr's I Have a Dream speech has become an icon of American public culture its imagery and words profoundly influencing the civil rights debate In The Rhetoric of Redemption Bobbitt applies Kenneth Burke's theory of guilt purification redemption in a close critical analysis of the speech developing and examining the implications of Burke's redemption drama in contemporary public discourse He studies the impact of the speech over time arguing that while King's speech contains an inspirational vision of national redemption it does so by omitting the real difficulties of overcoming America's racial divisions Luther's Rhetoric Neil LeRoux, 2002-01-01 Throughout his career Martin Luther preached regularly Perhaps because there is so much of it a large portion of the extant sermon material has not been explored by scholars However Luther's most famous sermons the Invocavit Sermons are frequently quoted discussed in every comprehensive Reformation history and preserved in many important English collections of Luther discourse These sermons and the situation that surrounded them continue to be crucial not only for understanding Luther's rhetoric but for appreciating the positions and strategies of Luther's opponents This book provides a detailed analysis of the organization strategies and style of Luther's Invocavit Sermons and explores how Luther's arguments functioned logically and psychologically The author provides historical and theological background to the sermons explains rhetorical analysis and its contributions to scholarship and offers careful and informative commentary on each sermon From this analysis readers will discover a clearer picture of why Luther's preaching was so compelling Latomus and Luther Anna

Vind, 2019-09-16 Who was Jacob Latomus What did he write in the series of lectures to which Luther penned an answer in 1521 an answer which is now so central to many interpretations of the great reformer And how is the reading of that answer affected when it is preceded by an interpretation of what Latomus wrote The study goes through the most important parts of Latomus' treatise against Luther 1521 The aim is to identify Latomus' theological convictions and thus to pin down who and what Luther was up against The second and major part of the book is a reading of Luther's pamphlet against Latomus 1521 Parallels are drawn with Latomus' theology in order to facilitate as much as possible an appreciation of the differences between the two The comparison between the two theologians shows that they speak completely different languages and that their viewpoints do not square at all Basically their ways depart in their understanding of God s word and how it is communicated to man This generates two ways of perceiving the matter of theology and of speaking theologically and prevents mutual understanding Latomus cannot understand Luther s view of the autonomy of God s word and the special character of proclamation and hence a theology which is incompatible with natural reason Even though he accepts a division between a natural and a supernatural rationality and thus admits that natural reason has a limit he grants the very same natural reason an important role in the ascent of cognition towards revelation Everything else such as Luther s theology is a dehumanization of the human being Luther on the other hand regards Latomus theology as a result of the impulse in sinful man towards ruling and controlling the word of God with his own inadequate natural abilities In Luther s eyes that proclamation of Christ which in the shape of a human being comes to man in contradiction of everything human here disappears in the twinkling of an eye

The Rhetorical Word Theo Hobson,2017-11-22 This title was first published in 2003 This book offers a bold reading of Protestant tradition from a rhetorical and literary perspective Arguing that Protestant thought is based in a rhetorical performance of authority Hobson draws on a wide range of modern and postmodern thought to defend this account of rhetorical authority from various charges of authoritarianism With close readings of Augustine Luther Kierkegaard and Barth this book develops a new rhetorical theology of the Word and also a new critique of secular modernity with particular reference to modern literature and the thought of Nietzsche Confronting the related issues of rhetoric and authority Hobson provides a provocative account of modern theology which offers new perspectives on theology s relationship to literature and postmodern thought

Understanding Martin Luther's Demonological Rhetoric in His Treatise Against the Heavenly Prophets (1525) Harold Ristau,2010 The Work of Faith Justin Nickel,2020-08-31 Many scholars assume that Luther advocates for a Christian life in which human beings are always passive recipients of God s grace as it is delivered in preaching and mere instruments through which God works to serve their neighbors The Work of Faith Divine Grace and Human Agency in Martin Luther s Preaching offers a different reading of Luther s views on human agency by drawing on a fresh source Luther s preaching Using Luther s sermons in the Church Postil as a primary source Justin Nickel argues that Martin Luther preached as though Christians have real if secondary agency in the lives they lead before God and neighbor As a result Nickel presents a Luther substantively concerned with how Christians lead their lives

Dost,2017-07-05 Drawing on the early correspondence of Martin Luther Timothy Dost presents a reassessment of the degree to which humanism influenced the thinking of this key reformation figure Studying letters written by Luther between 1507 and 1522 he explores the various ways Luther used humanism and humanist techniques in his writings and the effect of these influences on his developing religious beliefs The letters used in this study many of which have never before been translated into English focus on Luther s thoughts attitudes and application of humanism uncovering the extent to which he used humanist devices to develop his understanding of the gospel Although there have been other studies of Luther and humanism few have been grounded in such a close philological examination of Luther s writings Combining a sound knowledge of recent historiography with a detailed familiarity with Luther s correspondence Dost provides a sophisticated contribution to the field of reformation studies
