Audio-visual Guide, 1955 Foreign Language Teaching and Information and Communication Technology Barbara Lewandowska-Tomaszczyk, John Osborne, Frits Schulte, 2001 This volume intends to offer guidelines for the utilisation of information and communication technology (ICT) in language study and teaching. First chapters demonstrate how this general revolution has led to the emergence of a new educational paradigm in the context of digitally enriched learning environments including its design and implementation for literary or cultural studies. The applications of ICT in language learning and the use of computers in SLA research are discussed in the next two chapters. The final chapter introduces and discusses the scope and concepts of computational linguistics and corpus linguistics and their applications in lexicography, translation, and foreign language teaching. It is also devoted to looking at ways in which computers can contribute to our understanding of what language is and what implications this knowledge can bring to linguistic practice and use. Group Discussion Guide, 1940 Stanley Kubrick, a Guide to References and Resources Wallace Coyle, 1980 Teaching Ethnic Diversity with Film Carole Gerster, Laura W. Zlogar, 2006-01-16 From the beginning of the 20th century, Hollywood filmmakers have shaped public beliefs about and attitudes toward African Americans, Asian Americans, Native Americans, and Latinos. Challenging and updating the historical record, ethnic minority filmmakers have been re-presenting their histories, cultures, and literature from the perspectives of their own experience. The resulting films offer teachers an effective means for teaching ethnic diversity in today's media-saturated culture. This work details rationales and methods for incorporating readily available films into the high school and college undergraduate curriculum, particularly in history, social studies, literature, and film studies courses. It includes definitions of race and ethnicity and essays on the film history of African American, Asian American, American Indian, and Latino representation. Subsequent chapters, organized by disciplines, describe specific ways to teach visual and multicultural literacy with films, including suggestions for topics, methods, and films, and ending with four discipline-specific curriculum units for high school students. Film terminology and a list of resources to help teachers create their own curriculum units complete the work. Leonard Maltin's Movie and Video Guide, 2003 TV Guide, 1993 Leonard Maltin's Movie and Video Guide 1994 Leonard Maltin, 1993 Film critic and historian for Entertainment Tonight, Leonard Maltin delivers his new edition of the guide that belongs next to every TV and VCR in every home.
