China's peaceful rise Christopher Herrick,Zheya Gai,Surain Subramaniam,2016-09-26 Adopting a constructivist approach this book argues that China's prospects for achieving great power status peacefully depend more on perceptions of the country's development than on concrete measures of power or economic benefits Incorporating historical perceptions survey data and general analysis the authors explore Chinese foreign policies in international organisations international trade security relations and as a model for global governance as well as the reactions to those policies within the context of China's relations with Asian neighbours India Japan and the states of South east Asia existing international powers the European Union Russia and the United States and emergent trading partners Africa

The Return of Russia James Rodgers,2026-01-27 An incisive and engaging account of post Soviet Russia showing how and why the country has come into confrontation with the West The escalation of Russia's invasion of Ukraine in February 2022 triggered the most violent conflict seen on European soil for decades Millions of people have been displaced and thousands killed As the conflict continues many in the West are seeking to understand why Putin has followed his ambitions to such extreme ends James Rodgers examines the development of Russia's relationship with the West from the collapse of the Soviet Union in 1991 to the present day Rodgers argues that while Putin has long distrusted the West Western policies have made the situation much worse He shows that Putin's political career with its transformations from supportive ally to implacable critic of the West has been the defining influence on Russia's place in the contemporary world Following the invasion of Ukraine the West needs to develop a new understanding of Russia's views and possible actions rather than simply ignoring them as has been the case since the end of the Cold War

Redefining Genocide Doctor Damien Short,2016-06-15 In this highly controversial and original work Damien Short systematically rethinks how genocide is and should be defined Rather than focusing solely on a narrow conception of genocide as direct mass killing through close empirical analysis of a number of under discussed case studies including Palestine Sri Lanka Australia and Alberta Canada the book reveals the key role played by settler colonialism capitalism finite resources and the ecological crisis in driving genocidal social death on a global scale

Commodification of Global Agrifood Systems and Agro-Ecology Yıldız Atasoy,2017-05-18 This book explores the shifting relations of food provisioning in Turkey from a comparative global political economy perspective It offers in depth ethnographic analysis interviews and historical insights into the ambiguities and diversities that simultaneously affect the changing conditions of food and agriculture in Turkey Specific issues examined include the commodification of land food and labour the expansion and deepening of industrial standardization the expansion of a supermarket model and concomitant changes in as well as the simultaneous co existence of traditional methods of production and marketing Contrasting observations are drawn from diverse locales to provide examples of convergence divergence and cohabitation in relation to transnationally advocated industrial models Commodification of Global Agrifood Systems and Agro Ecology employs a form of comparative perspective that allows the particular processes of restructuring of agrifood relations in Turkey to be simultaneously distinguished from yet related to changes taking place in global power dynamics Y ld z Atasoy explores agrifood transformation in Turkey with a unique approach that considers a plurality of intertwined normative influences ontological beliefs cultural religious narratives political struggles and critical interpretive positions Based on original research the book treats changes in food provisioning as an analytical thread capable of uncovering how the normative acceptability of capitalized agriculture and techno scientific innovation is entangled with processes of class formation growing inter capitalist competition and Islamic politics Such processes in turn frame income wealth generation landscape management agro ecological dynamics and labour practices as well as the taste and smell of place Reimagining Home in the 21st Century Justine Lloyd, Ellie Vasta, 2017-02-24 Providing ways of reimagining home this book demonstrates that thinking differently about home advances our understanding of processes of belonging Authors in this collection explore home in relation to the figure of the stranger and public space as well as with a focus on practices of dwelling and materialities Through these frameworks the collection as whole suggests that our home does not belong to us rather we belong to home The European Union and the Geopolitics of the Arctic Andreas Raspotnik, 2018-01-26 The Arctic is a region that has seen exponential growth as a space of geopolitical interest over the past decade This insightful book is the first to analyse the European Union s Arctic policy endeavours of the early 21st Century from a critical geopolitical perspective Handbook of Neoliberalism Simon Springer, Kean Birch, Julie MacLeavy, 2016-07-07 Neoliberalism is easily one of the most powerful discourses to emerge within the social sciences in the last two decades and the number of scholars who write about this dynamic and unfolding process of socio spatial transformation is astonishing Even more surprising though is that there has until now not been an attempt to provide a wide ranging volume that engages with the multiple registers in which neoliberalism has evolved The Routledge Handbook of Neoliberalism seeks to offer a comprehensive overview of the phenomenon of neoliberalism by examining the range of ways that it has been theorized promoted critiqued and put into practice in a variety of geographical locations and institutional frameworks With contributions from over 50 leading authors working at institutions around the world the volumes seven sections will offer a systematic overview of neoliberalism s origins political implications social tensions spaces natures and environments and aftermaths in addressing ongoing and emerging debates The volume aims to provide the first comprehensive overview of the field and to advance the established and emergent debates in a field that has grown exponentially over the past two decades coinciding with the meteoric rise of neoliberalism as a hegemonic ideology state form policy and program and governmentality It includes a substantive introductory chapter and will serve as an invaluable resource for undergraduates graduate students and professional scholars alike The Parliamentary Debates (Hansard).
