

11.5 Indirect Objects

Key Information

An indirect object tells to whom or to what or for whom or for what something is done. A sentence can have an indirect object only if it has a direct object. The indirect object usually appears after the verb and before the direct object.

The animal shelter gives stray animals protection. [The shelter gives protection to what?]

Contributions buy the shelter needed supplies. [Contributions buy supplies for what?]

The words to and for are never used with indirect objects. To and for are prepositions. A noun or pronoun following to or for is actually the object of the preposition.

■ A. Identifying Direct and Indirect Objects

For each of the following sentences, underline the direct object once and the indirect object twice. One sentence does not have an indirect object.

1. Paris has always given foreign writers a place of shelter.

3. In the twenties American writers in Paris would bring Certrude Stein their writings.
4. In her criticisms she would tell them the truth.
5. Sadly, living in Paris now costs each creative young people a great deal.

■ B. Using Indirect Objects

Add an indirect object to each sentence. Rewrite the sentences.

1. The bride and groom pledged their love and faithfulness.

2. My brother left a funny message on my answering machine.
