Teacher Education in Sub-Saharan Africa Rosarii Griffin, 2012-05-14 In the drive to achieve universal primary education as one of the Millennium Development Goals there is an increasing recognition of the urgency of focusing on teacher education to both meet the demand for more than one million qualified teachers required to achieve this goal within sub Saharan Africa as well as to combat the sometimes poor quality educational experience reported in the school Currently approximately only one third of teachers are qualified to teach This dearth in qualified teachers also means that secondary and tertiary education need to be improved upon to provide an educated cohort of graduates This in turn will ensure that the quality of teacher trained and retained within the profession is of a sufficiently high standard to ensure sustainable progress This volume focuses on the various aspects of teacher education which need to be addressed in order for the wider Millennium Goals to be achieved but more importantly so that each African child living within sub Saharan Africa will have the right to a quality education ensuring they too experience their right and entitlement as children to reach their full potential often taken for granted in Western countries giving African children the necessary tools to build a better future for themselves Of particular interest to the education researcher and policy maker this volume's contributors look at the various issues and challenges around the teacher profession particularly in relation to resources and practices within sub Saharan Africa The contributors examine the issue of building research capacity for educational research within teacher education Colleges and explore the concept of education for sustainable development with the view to improving the development of quality teacher education within the global South In this volume research reports are presented highlighting the various challenges within the structure and provision of teacher education within certain national contexts including assessment and curricula issues which need to be addressed This volume goes from the global to the local and examines teacher educator teaching learning and reflective practice issues within different contexts as well as exploring alternative pre service experiences for western teachers who wish to work within the sub Saharan context as well as some teacher educator exchange programmes between the South and North Case countries explored include Lesotho South Africa Mozambique Uganda Kenya Tanzania and Madagascar to mention but a few Of particular value to the education researcher and policy maker this book provides a timely resource focusing on an area of neglect highlighting the central role of the teacher and teacher education towards sustainable development within the sub Saharan African context

Meeting under the Integral Sign?: The Oslo Congress of Mathematicians on the Eve of the Second World War Christopher D. Hollings, Reinhard Siegmund-Schultze, 2020-04-08 This book examines the historically unique conditions under which the International Congress of Mathematicians took place in Oslo in 1936 This Congress was the only one on this level to be held during the period of the Nazi regime in Germany 1933 1945 and after the wave of emigrations from it Relying heavily on unpublished archival sources the authors consider the different goals of the various participants in the Congress most notably those of the Norwegian organizers and the Nazi led German delegation They also investigate the reasons for the absence of the proposed Soviet and Italian delegations In addition aiming to shed light onto the mathematical dimension of the Congress the authors provide overviews of the nineteen plenary presentations as well as their planning and development Biographical information about each of the plenary speakers rounds off the picture The Oslo Congress the first at which Fields Medals were awarded is used as a lens through which the reader of this book can view the state of the art of mathematics in the mid 1930s
