The Power of Three for Persuasion

To use the power of three to write persuasive sentences.

WCT

The Power of Three

The power of three is when we use three adjectives to describe something.
The forest is misty, misty and moist.

People are more likely to pay attention and remember when information is given in threes.

We can use the power of three when describing something and when trying to persuade someone.

WCT

The Power of Three

When we use the power of three, we can use it in a sentence opener or in the middle of a sentence.

Beautiful, misty and moist beaches are waiting just around.*

Open, open and content, the machine will be at your disposal at the press of a button.*

Practice these sentences in the power of three in a sentence opener.

WCT

The Power of Three

and		ungrateful
often		and
will be hard		harder
break		strong

We can use our three adjectives to form a sentence using the power of three to persuade someone against learning our lesson here.

WCT

The Power of Three

Practice some of these sentences and include the power of three.

Wouldn't you like to experience a luxury space? The hotel is the best thing you've ever seen before with its state of the art facilities. It is luxurious. If you don't visit, you will be with regret for the rest of your life.

 Talk to your partner.

WCT

The Power of Three

Wouldn't you like to experience a beautiful, misty and moist space? The hotel is the best thing you've ever seen before with its state of the art, sophisticated and modern facilities. Luxury, spacious and spacious is waiting for you behind those hotel doors. If you don't visit, you will live with regret, sorrow and envy for the rest of your life.

Use any type of literary techniques, we shouldn't use too many sentences which use the power of three.

If we use it too much, our writing can become predictable for the reader and it can lose its impact.
