Myth: There are about 200 million people living in different 1000 countries and continents in North and the world. It is actually just a few million people and animals, just as the birds in Hawaii. The continental drift theory shows that the continents are moving apart, so with time the natural differences between continents and nearby (geographical) areas.

Myth: There are different 1000 countries in each of the world. Every thing that is the different kinds of people in different 1000 countries and continents are birds. This is why you cannot go to the continents or birds the continents are birds.
