from others that Stott inspired and discipleship John Stott on Creation Care is the perfect resource for every Christian looking to understand biblical teaching on the environment and how creation care should form part of their discipleship It is also an ideal biblical and theological resource for those involved in creation care ministry Published as part of the John Stott Centenary celebrations proceeds from John Stott on Creation Care will go to A Rocha International a charity that carries community based conservation projects in response to biodiversity loss around the world John Stott viewed creation care as an inevitable implication of the biblical message and as a grounding for Christian engagement in environmental commitments This collection will give you a deeper more thorough understanding of his writings and how his views developed and will leave you motivated and inspired to look again at your discipleship and how you approach creation care

Christian Mission in the Modern World John Stott, Christopher J H Wright, 2016-01-15 Jesus sends us into the world just as God the Father sent him and yet Christians continue to disagree on what this involves Some believe that the focus of Christian mission is evangelizing and saving souls Others emphasize global justice issues or relief and development work Is either view correct on its own John Stott s classic volume first published forty years ago presents an enduring view of Christian mission that is just as needed today Newly updated and expanded by Christopher J H Wright Christian Mission in the Modern World provides a biblically based approach to mission that addresses both spiritual and physical needs With his trademark clarity and conviction Stott illuminates how the Great Commission itself not only assumes the proclamation that makes disciples but also teaches obedience to the Great Commandment of love and service Wright has expertly updated the original book and demonstrates the continuing relevance of Stott s prescient thinking This balanced approach to mission encourages current and future Christians to embrace an unconflicted and holistic model of ministry
