Shelley, 2022-09-27 This thematic encyclopedia provides an overview of education in 70 countries worldwide and links educational organization philosophy and practice with important global social economic and environmental issues facing the contemporary world The Ethically Responsible Organization Ronald R. Sims, 2022-12-27 This book argues that businesses must be ethically responsible emphasizing the importance of building and sustaining an ethical culture It discusses preventive measures to avoid scandals the role of continuous learning and strategies for reinforcing ethical practices through consistent training and education Financial Literacy Education Jay Liebowitz, 2018-10-09 Today s graduates should be grounded in the basics of personal finance and possess the skills and knowledge necessary to make informed decisions and take responsibility for their own financial well being Faced with an array of complex financial services and sophisticated products many graduates lack the knowledge and skills to make rational informed decisions on the use of their money and planning for future events such as retirement This book shows what you can do to improve financial literacy awareness and education It covers the use of interactive games and tutorials peer to peer mentoring and financial literacy contests in addition to more formal education It gives you a sample of approaches and experiences in the financial literacy arena Divided into three parts the book covers financial literacy education for grades K 12 college and post college Belonging Sue Unerman, Kathryn Jacob, Mark Edwards, 2020-10-29 The most important business book of the year Esquire There s never been more discussion around diversity and inclusion in the workplace From gender pay gaps and the MeToo movement to Black Lives Matter it seems that every organization has finally recognised that lasting change needs to happen Various studies show that the most successful and productive senior management teams are those which are truly diverse and eclectic Yet there remains only 8 female CEOs of FTSE 100 boards and only 10 BAME people working in leadership roles across companies in the FTSE 100 While there has been a clear shift in attitudes actual progress towards more inclusive workspaces

has been excruciatingly slow and in some cases has ground to a halt Following extensive research and interviews at over 200 international businesses Kathryn Jacob Sue Unerman and Mark Edwards have discovered one major problem that is holding back the move towards greater diversity why aren t the men getting involved Most men are not engaged with D I initiatives in the workplace at one extreme they may be feeling actively hostile and threatened by the changing cultural landscape But others may be unmotivated to change recognising the abstract benefits of diversity but not realising what s in it for them The time for change is long past Belonging is the call to action we need today the tool to turn the men in power into allies as we battle discrimination harassment pay gaps and structural racism and patriarchy at every level of the workplace The lessons in this book will help us work together to build a better workplace where everyone feels they belong The Business of Race: How to Create and Sustain an Antiracist Workplace—And Why it's Actually Good for Business Margaret H.
