Profit and Punishment Tony Messenger, 2021-12-07 In Profit and Punishment a Pulitzer Prize winning journalist exposes the tragedy of modern day debtors prisons and how they destroy the lives of poor Americans swept up in a system designed to penalize the most impoverished Intimate raw and utterly scathing Heather Ann Thompson Pulitzer Prize winning author of Blood in the Water Crucial evidence that the justice system is broken and has to be fixed Please read this book James Patterson 1 New York Times bestselling author As a columnist for the St Louis Post Dispatch Tony Messenger has spent years in county and municipal courthouses documenting how poor Americans are convicted of minor crimes and then saddled with exorbitant fines and fees If they are unable to pay they are often sent to prison where they are then charged a pay to stay bill in a cycle that soon creates a mountain of debt that can take years to pay off These insidious penalties are used to raise money for broken local and state budgets often overseen by for profit companies and it is one of the central issues of the criminal justice reform movement In the tradition of Evicted and The New Jim Crow Messenger has written a call to arms shining a light on a two tiered system invisible to most Americans He introduces readers to three single mothers caught up in this system living in poverty in Missouri Oklahoma and South Carolina whose lives are upended when minor offenses become monumental financial and personal catastrophes As these women struggle to clear their debt and move on with their lives readers meet the dogged civil rights advocates and lawmakers fighting by their side to create a more equitable and fair court of justice In this remarkable feat of reporting Tony Messenger exposes injustice that is agonizing and infuriating in its mundane cruelty as he champions the rights and dignity of some of the most vulnerable Americans
