

Table 1: Limited English Proficient Accommodations

Accommodations are allowed for LEP students when testing for academic knowledge and skills, but not when testing for English language proficiency

Notice this is not specific to the NAEP

Table 1 lists the only allowable accommodations LEP students may use on tests with content assessments: Standards Based Assessment, HSOCE, and TerraNova. The NAEP has specific LEP accommodations; do not refer to Table 1 for the NAEP.

Timing, Scheduling Permissible for LEP Students

TIMING, SCHEDULING (see appendix for details)

- Allowing frequent breaks during testing.
- Allowing additional time.
- Administering the test over several days completing on or before the last day of the test window. (See appendix for security procedures. For grade 10 SBA-HSOCE and HSOCE Exam, districts must submit an application to the Department no later than 5 days prior to the first day of planned testing. These students MUST have an IED approved application prior to the first day of planned testing.)

METHOD

- Administering the test individually or to small groups in a separate location.
- Administering the test by ESL or native language teacher within state guidelines for provision and test administration.

PRESENTATION (see appendix for guidance)

Test Directions (Directions that are read aloud to all students by test administrators and/or clarification of test directions embedded within the tests.) Test directions do not include test items or prompts.

- Allowing students to ask for clarification of directions.
- Clarifying test directions in the native language.
- Reading directions in the native language.
- Simplifying or rephrasing directions in English.
- Providing written version of oral directions in English or the native language.
- Writing helpful notes from the directions on the board or a separate piece of paper in English or the native language.
- Repeating or re-reading embedded directions.
- Proctor or test administrator asking student questions about directions to check understanding.
- Clarifying directions by having student restate them.
