Bernstein, CFA Program Curriculum: Financial statement analysis, 2008 Financial Reporting and Statement Analysis Clyde P. Stickney, 1996 For the undergraduate or MBA course in Financial Statement Analysis offered by accounting finance and economics departments This text takes a strategic approach to financial statement analysis Not only will students apply accounting principles and procedures but they will understand the economic conditions of a firm and the firm s particular strategies to compete in each of its businesses This approach elevates the course from one of mechanical calculations to one that integrates concepts from economics business strategy accounting and other business disciplines This synthesizing experience rewards students both intellectually and practically Financial Statement Analysis Thomas R.
Robinson, Paul Munter, Julia Grant, 2004 Robinson Munter and Grant s Financial Statement Analysis A Global Perspective is designed especially for users of financial statements Takes a financial statement analysis perspective The focus is on the user of financial statements and not the preparer of financial statements The emphasis is on the analysis and use of financial reports Knowledge of debits and credits is not required Emphasizes a global perspective by presenting both International Accounting Standards and U S GAAP Uses a step by step presentation to take students through the financial statement analysis process from understanding the financial statements to valuation Motorola and Nokia are used as running case examples throughout the text Additional real world examples are integrated into each chapter as appropriate Assignment Materials Many of the end of chapter problems have been reproduced from AIMR CFA R examination released questions and sample examinations Each chapter has a case derived from real company financial statements that can be used for class
