Student Learning Objectives (SLOs) for Learning Objectives

Students will be able to identify the various stakeholders in a business organization and explain how their interests, needs, and expectations affect the organization's performance.

Write a paragraph describing the stakeholder relationships in your organization on page 100.

1. Identify the stakeholders in your organization and describe their interests, needs, and expectations. How do these interests, needs, and expectations affect the organization's performance? How do you think that POC can be used to manage these relationships and the process of organizational development that is individual and collective?
