

Report Writing in English

Introduction

Some tips and examples of common mistakes, especially for TEPE students writing their senior reports.

1. Tips

- 1.1 Do not use "we", "our", "I", "my" in a formal report, except in the Acknowledgements Section. In the text, use the passive voice similar to newspaper reporting.
- 1.2 Allow time for checking the English grammar and spelling. If students wait until the deadline, there may be a queue of reports waiting of more than one week.
- 1.3 Do not use abbreviations such as isn't, don't, it's, can't in a formal report. You will see abbreviations used on Internet, but the articles are usually more informal.
- 1.4 Do not start a sentence with And.

1.5 Tenses

Proposal report	Future passive tense e.g. a program will be written
Literative survey	Past tense
Progress report	Past passive tense for reporting work done e.g. a machine was used to
Results	Past tense e.g. the flow was The results showed that but present passive tense may be used referring to tables and graphs e.g. the results are shown in Fig.1
Further work suggested	Future passive tense e.g. more tests will be done
Final report, including abstract and summary	Mainly past passive tense as results and conclusion arise from work done.

English Grammar Report Writing:

Report Writing for Criminal Justice Professionals Larry S. Miller, John T. Whitehead, 2010-11-24 So much of the process of criminal justice depends on good documentation and criminal justice professionals can spend as much as 50-75% of their time writing up administrative and research reports. Much of the legal process depends on the careful documentation that records crucial information. And yet most of these law enforcement, security, corrections, and probation and parole officers have not had adequate training in how to provide a well-written, accurate, brief, and complete report. Report Writing for Criminal Justice Professionals provides practical advice on report writing with specific writing samples and guidelines. The authors go beyond the routine English grammar approach to deal with the difficult but often ignored problem of documentation that will hold up in court. Important concepts are emphasized with related checklists, forms, and pull-out chapter tests. The material is organized into three sections: The Nature of Report Writing, The Mechanics of Report Writing, and The Modernization of Report Writing. NEW TO THIS EDITION: Updated and revised with new material on forensics and scientific reports, crime reporting, common errors in forensic reports, and automation of report writing. Appendixes are thoroughly revised with new examples of reporting forms, worksheets, and reports, including a sample forensic lab report and presentence investigation report. Text complemented by numerous examples, sample reports, and tools. Each chapter concludes with a sample test for the reader to self-evaluate learning. Appendixes include model reports, examples of agency instructions for completing report forms, and selected readings.
