Elephants

Elephants are the largest land animals. There are about one billion tonnes of weight and length over 100 elephants from their trunk to their tail, they are about the length of a bus. Feeding their huge body requires a lot of food and for this reason they spend about eight hours a day eating. On average they eat 125 kilograms of vegetation per day.

They are known to be very intelligent and gentle by nature. They are also known for their long trunks, large ears, and
