Mining Africa Warikandwa, Tapiwa V.,2017-05-01 This book is a pacesetter in matters of mining and the environment in Africa from multidisciplinary and spatio temporal perspectives The book approaches mining from the perspectives of law politics archaeology anthropology African studies geography human ecology sociology history economics and development It interrogates mining and environment from the perspectives of customary law as well as from the perspectives of Euro modern laws In this sense the book straddles precolonial colonial and postcolonial mining and environmental perspectives In all this it maintains a Pan Africanist perspective that also speaks to contemporary debates on African Renaissance and to the unity of Africa From scrutinising the lived realities of African miners who are often insensitively and unjustly addressed as illegal miners the book also interrogates transnational mining corporations matters of corporate social responsibility as well as matters of tax evasions by transnational corporations whose commitment to accountability to African governments is questioned With both theoretical chapters and chapter based on empirical studies on mining and the environment across the African continent the book provides a much needed holistic one stop shop for scholars activists researchers and policy makers who need a comprehensive treatise on African mining and the environment The book comes at the right time when matters of African mining and environment are increasingly coming to the fore in the light of discourses about the new 21st century scramble for African resources in which big transnational corporations and nations are jostling to suck Africa dry in their race to control planetary resources It is a book that speaks to contemporary broader issues of de coloniality and transformation of African minds and African environmental resources

Africa and the World Dawn Nagar,Charles Mutasa,2017-10-25 This book probes key issues pertaining to Africa s relations with global actors It provides a comprehensive trajectory of Africa s relations with key bilateral and major multilateral actors assessing how the Cold War affected the African state systems political policies its economies and its security Taken together the essays in this volume provide a collective understanding of

Africa's drive to improve the capacity of its state of global affairs and assess whether it is in fact able to do so Sanctions with Chinese Characteristics Angela Poh, 2025-10-01 The view that China has become increasingly assertive under President Xi Jinping is now a common trope in academic and media discourse However until the end of Xi Jinping's first term in March 2018 China had been relatively restrained in its use of coercive economic measures This is puzzling given the conventional belief among scholars and practitioners that sanctions are a middle ground between diplomatic and military paramilitary action Using a wide range of methods and data including in depth interviews with 76 current and former politicians policy makers diplomats and commercial actors across 12 countries and 16 cities Sanctions with Chinese Characteristics Rhetoric and Restraint in China's Diplomacy examines the ways in which China had employed economic sanctions to further its political objectives and the factors explaining China's behaviour This book provides a systematic investigation into the ways in which Chinese decisionmakers approached sanctions both at the United Nations Security Council and unilaterally and shows how China's longstanding sanctions rhetoric has had a constraining effect on its behaviour resulting in its inability to employ sanctions in complete alignment with its immediate interests Food Security and Political Stability in Tajikistan Raj Kumar Sharma, 2018-10-01 There are links between food security and political stability as was evident during the world food crisis of 2007-08 Food riots were witnessed in a number of countries contributing to political instability There are a number of dimensions to the problem of food insecurity in Tajikistan This book is an attempt to fill the academic void on Tajikistan especially pertaining to its food security This work traces the history of agriculture and food production in Tajikistan from mid 19th century when it came under Russian rule From its inception Tajikistan has been facing the geographic handicap as it is a mountainous country and only 7 percent of the total land is arable which limits its food production This book is a detailed study of how Soviet economic geography introduced intensive cotton cultivation in Tajikistan at the expense of food crops Soviet economic planners felt that a region with hot climate and large water resources should not attempt to grow grains but cotton In the contemporary context this book focuses on how the state and international actors have responded to the food insecurity in Tajikistan Most importantly the book also analyses the relationship between food security and political stability in Tajikistan The Struggle of Democratisation against Authoritarianism in Contemporary Africa Kenneth Good, 2020-05-07 This book discusses how the historical dimensions in Kenya Zimbabwe and South Africa are similar dominated by oppressive settler colonialism and authoritarian independent governments their ruling elites characterised by greed and corruption Zimbabwe is outstandingly oppressive plagued from the start by planned regularised ferocious and unparalleled violence as described in one chapter Perpetrated by ZANU PF and President Robert Mugabe it targeted the organised urban poor Hope arose when the trade unions created the MDC in Harare in 1999 A chapter on South Africa is also included and outlines how a small ANC elite chose external armed struggle around 1960 Their campaign marooned thousands of young people in Angolan camps for no military gains and the neglect of domestic political development A new and independent formation the United Democratic Front from 1983 tried to build a popular non racial participatory democracy However an intolerant ANC was determined on its supremacy and Nelson Mandela suppressed the Front in 1991 No similar democratic aspiration has subsequently appeared Another country examined in this text is Tunisia which since 2010 has been totally different utilising an organised civil society a democratic Islamist party and wide readiness to compromise an open politics is being created against big odds From Antagonism to Re-engagement Richard Kamidza,2017-07-19 The book interrogates the European Union EU Zimbabwe Economic Partnership Agreement EPA negotiations covering trade in goods trade related rules and development cooperation The negotiations coincided with EUs motives as the dominant development partner and Zimbabwes state stakeholder fault lines creating dilemmas in the pursuit of a fair EPA outcome As a result the economically weak Zimbabwe signed and ratified an asymmetrical interim EPA iEPA with an economically powerful EU in 2009 and 2012 respectively Meanwhile direct bilateral re engagement which eluded the Government of National Unity GNU became real following ZANU PF landslide victory on 31 July 2013 that sufficiently altered the power balance to trigger the process between the former nemesis in support of iEPA domestication and social and economic development ZANU PF government stopped blaming the EU and other western nations for the countrys continued economic underperformance signaling a softening approach on its part Similarly the EU and its member states softened its perception on ZANU PF leadership leading to resumption and intensification of re engagement despite failure to implement the Global Political Agreement related constitutional and democratic reforms agreed by GNU This re engagement was firmly endorsed when the EU and Zimbabwe signed an agreement in July 2015 to normalise bilateral relations and start cooperation

The Oxford Handbook of International Organizations Jacob Katz Cogan,Ian Hurd,Ian Johnstone,2016-11-24 Virtually every important question of public policy today involves an international organization From trade to intellectual property to health policy and beyond governments interact with international organizations in almost everything they do Increasingly individual citizens are directly affected by the work of international organizations Aimed at academics students practitioners and lawyers this book gives a comprehensive overview of the world of international organizations today It emphasizes both the practical aspects of their organization and operation and the conceptual issues that arise at the junctures between nation states and international authority and between law and politics While the focus is on inter governmental organizations the book also encompasses non governmental organizations and public policy networks With essays by the leading scholars and practitioners the book first considers the main international organizations and the kinds of problems they address This includes chapters on the organizations that relate to trade humanitarian aid peace operations and more as well as chapters on the history of international organizations The book then looks at the constituent parts and internal functioning of international organizations This addresses the internal management of the organization and includes chapters on the distribution of decision making power within the organizations the structure of their assemblies the role of Secretaries General and other heads budgets and finance and other elements of complex bureaucracies at the international level This book is essential reading for scholars practitioners and students alike
