Dominant Language Constellations Joseph Lo Bianco, Larissa Aronin, 2020-09-07 This volume is dedicated to the concept and several applications of Dominant Language Constellations DLC by which it advances understanding of current multilingualism through addition of a novel perspective from which to view contemporary language use and acquisition The term Dominant Language Constellation denotes the set of a person's or group's most expedient languages functioning as an entire unit and enabling an individual or group to meet their needs in a multilingual environment The volume presents pioneering contributions that employ DLC as the lens for analysing a wide array of issues These include multilingual syntactic development cross linguistic interaction and multilingual production in formal and informal educational contexts as well as linguistic profiles of multilingual groups used in elementary school and higher education Other DLC issues include discussions of how identity emotions and attitudes operate in various minority and majority contexts Because the DLC concept does not assume any inherent hierarchy of languages it can serve as a framework public policy in multilingual countries communities faced with challenging policy determinations regarding choice of languages for use in education settings and more widely in social institutions and the economy Some chapters develop and extend the DLC concept others adapt and apply it to a variety of contexts both global and local Many chapters feature educational and social settings across large parts of the world Africa Australia Europe North America Canada and the USA and Southeast Asia The volume can serve as supplementary reading for courses on multilingualism sociolinguistics language policy and planning educational linguistics Second and Third Language Acquisition The Routledge International Handbook of Language Education Policy in Asia

Andy Kirkpatrick, Anthony J. Liddicoat, 2019-04-17 This must have handbook offers a comprehensive survey of the field It reviews the language education policies of Asia encompassing 30 countries sub divided by regions namely East Southeast South and Central Asia and considers the extent to which these are being implemented and with what effect The most recent iteration of language education policies of each of the countries is described and the impact and potential consequence of any change is critically considered Each country chapter provides a historical overview of the languages in use and language education policies examines the ideologies underpinning the language choices and includes an account of the debates and controversies surrounding language and language education policies before concluding with some predictions for the future

Pursuing Play Rebecca Beusaert, 2024-09-13 Levelling the playing field Life in the Canadian countryside at the turn of the twentieth century is often generalized as insular backwards and arduous These assumptions are redressed in Rebecca Beusaert's Pursuing Play which highlights the complexity of small town culture through a lively examination of women's efforts to negotiate space for themselves and their leisure pursuits Amply illustrated Pursuing Play draws on diaries letters newspapers and census records to investigate women's recreational activities in three southern Ontario towns Dresden Tillsonburg and Elora between 1870 1914 Though women's recreational choices were restricted by pervasive ideas about propriety Beusaert reveals how they increasingly spearheaded both formal and informal clubs events and social gatherings and integrated them into their daily lives In telling the story of what small town women did for fun while navigating social hierarchies nurturing ties of kinship and friendship and advancing community development Pursuing Play adds a new dimension to Canadian histories of gender leisure and popular culture Encompassing public and private pastimes the growth of sports the phenomenon of armchair travelling and the ease with which recreation can slip from reputable to disreputable this rich study uncovers how gender class and ethnicity shaped the nature and scope of women s leisure in small town Ontario and beyond

Legal Histories of Empire Lyndsay Campbell,Shaunnagh Dorsett,2024-10-11 This collection brings together an international group of scholars in order to provide new insights into the diversity of imperial legalities Across empires legalities were produced not just or even through the imperial imposition of laws and legal forms but through local processes of negotiation and contestation Far from the metropolises local actors found ways to creatively navigate and subvert imperial frameworks and laws and to create space in which to shape new legalities responsive to local circumstance and need Covering topics as diverse as smuggling in eighteenth century Jersey the criminalisation of female market women in World War II era southern Nigeria and whiteness and race in sexual perversion cases in twentieth century Malaya the collection elaborates new legal histories of empire Drawing from Britain Ireland Australia Canada the USA India Sri Lanka Africa and Malaysia the collection brings together chapters that examine the stories of the peoples of empires and shows how they constituted experienced navigated and subverted the legal complexities of living under empire This book will be of interest to scholars and researchers in law and history but also to those with relevant interests in post colonial and cultural studies as well as in criminology and sociology
