Question 1

Fill in the blanks in the following text, using the pronouns given in the box. Use each pronoun only once. There is one extra word. (5 Marks)

It he his she my her

An elderly mason was ready to retire and (1) he told his boss of his plan to leave and to live a more leisurely life with his family. He would miss the pay checks but he needed to retire. The owner a lady, was sorry to see such a good worker go, and (2) she asked the mason to build just one house for (3) her as a personal favor. The mason agreed, but in time it was easy to see that his heart was not in his work. He resorted to shoddy, careless workmanship and used inferior material. (4) It was an unfortunate way to end a successful career. When the mason finished his work the employer came to inspect the house. She handed the front door key to the mason. She said "This is your house. It is (5) my gift for you."

English Paper Grade 12 2011:

How to Read Texts Neil McCaw, 2013-09-26 Now in its second edition How to Read Texts introduces students to key critical approaches to literary texts and offers a practical introduction for students developing their own critical and close reading skills. Written in a lively jargon-free style, it explains critical concepts, approaches, and ideas, including Debates around critical theory, The role of history and context, The links between creativity and criticism, The relationship between author, reader, and text. The new edition now includes guidance on analysing a range of multi-media texts, including film and online media, as well as the purely literary. In addition to new practical examples, readings, exercises, and checkpoints that help students to build confidence in their own critical readings of both primary and secondary texts, the book now also offers guidance on writing fully formed critical essays and tips for independent research. Comprehensively updated and revised throughout, How to Read Texts is an indispensable guide for students making the transition to university study.

The Armed Forces Covenant in action? Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Defence Committee, 2013-07-18 A series of Ofsted inspections on Army Apprenticeships conducted in 2013 rated the overall effectiveness as good. This was an improvement over the last inspection in 2009, rated as satisfactory, now called requires improvement. Some 28 per cent of Army recruits were less than 18 years of age. Further information is needed on why the Army is so dependent on recruiting personnel under the age of 18 years compared to the other two Services, and whether steps are being taken to reduce this dependency. Of those recruited in 2012, 35 per cent of the Army were rated at entry level 2 for literacy, that of a 7 to 8 year old, and 39 per cent had a literacy level of an eleven year old. If, as the MoD states, it has to recruit personnel at whatever level of attainment is available, then it should boost remedial action when recruitment entry standards are particularly low. In light of changes brought about by Future Force 2020, it may be that recruiting personnel with higher levels of attainment would better meet the future needs of the Armed Forces. Whilst the Committee recognises that some recruits may not be eager to take further academic exams, the MoD should encourage more recruits to undertake English and Maths GCSEs, which would stand them in good stead for future employment. The MoD has carried out some useful pilot projects with paramedic training and should identify more potential projects to ensure that vital skills, paid for by the MoD, are not lost to the country.

The Big Book of Tasks for English Language Development, Grades K-8 Nancy Akhavan, 2024-02-29 This title examines how teaching multilingual learners requires changing instruction to focus on practices that have high impact for students as they acquire language. Yet it's not about doing more; it's about doing smarter.
