Generals Die in Bed Charles Yale Harrison, 2007 First published London N Douglas 1930 New York Morrow 1930

Generals Die in Bed Charles Harrison, 2004 Drawing on his own experiences in the First World War Charles Yale Harrison tells a stark and poignant story of a young man sent to fight on the Western Front It is an unimaginably harrowing journey especially for one not yet old enough to vote In sparse but gripping prose Harrison conveys a sense of the horror of life in the trenches Here is where soldiers fight and die entombed in mud surrounded by rats and lice forced to survive on insufficient rations Harrison captures the only kind of humour possible under the circumstances of life on the Western Front dark and sardonic a mingling of comedy and horror

Generals Die in Bed Charles Yale Harrison, 2014 This chilling account of life in the trenches of rat infested decay and vicious mechanized killing continues to bring readers face to face with the ugly realities of warfare

Skills Mania Bob Davis, 2000 In Skills Mania Bob Davis argues passionately that the emphasis in the secondary school classroom must shift from a technocratic skills based approach to teaching and discussion that focuses on real substantive issues He also calls for a new emphasis on the teaching of history a practice that has been sadly lacking in recent years Two central qualities warm up this book first the story is told through the author s own teaching and second the author presents us with an original and frank point of view This is a stirring engaged and practical book

Progressive Heritage James Doyle, 2002-04-17 Most critics and literary historians have ignored Marxist inspired creative literature in Canada or dismissed it as an ephemeral phenomenon of the 1930s Research reveals however that from the 1920s onward Canadian creative writers influenced by Marxist ideas have produced a quantitatively substantial and artistically significant body of poetry drama fiction and non fiction This book traces historically and evaluates critically this tradition with particular emphasis on writers who were associated with or sympathetic to the Communist Party of Canada After two chapters surveying the work of anti capitalist writers of the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries the book concentrates on the development of Marxist inspired writing from the 1920s to the end of the twentieth century Besides devoting attention to both social and theoretical backgrounds this study provides critical commentary on work by prominent writers who spent part of their literary careers as Communist Party members including Dorothy Livesay Patrick Anderson Milton Acorn and George Ryga as well as less well known but more fervent Communists such as Margaret Fairley Dyson Carter Joe Wallace Stanley Ryerson and Jean Jules Richard Although primarily concerned with the older generation of Marxists who flourished between the 1920s and the 1970s the book also includes a chapter on the post 1970s New Left Barricades is Harrison s most experimental work including a series of fantasy sequences that culminate in a scene heavily indebted to the Nighttown episode in James Joyce s Ulysses the novel was also published a year before James Thurber s better known short story The Secret Life of Walter Mitty The novel is also Harrison s only foray into satire an especially unexpected turn given that the Spanish Civil war literary canon and especially works of literature written in the midst of the war tend towards earnestness rather than irony Harrison s novel is thus a unique book significant for its self consciousness as a modernist novel and a political document The Great War Kellen Kurschinski,Steve Marti,Alicia Robinet,Matt Symes,Jonathan F. Vance,2015-10-23 The Great War From Memory to History offers a new look at the multiple ways the Great War has been remembered and commemorated through the twentieth century and into the twenty first Drawing on contributions from history cultural studies film and literary studies this collection offers fresh perspectives on the Great War and its legacy at the local national and international levels More importantly it showcases exciting new research on the experiences and memories of forgotten participants who have often been ignored in dominant narratives or national histories Contributors to this international study highlight the transnational character of memory making in the Great War s aftermath

No single memory of the war has prevailed but many symbols rituals and expressions of memory connect seemingly disparate communities and wartime experiences With groundbreaking new research on the role of Aboriginal peoples ethnic minorities
