

II. Introduction

- The Holocaust was a genocide that took place during World War II in which the Nazi regime, led by Adolf Hitler, systematically murdered approximately six million Jews, as well as millions of others deemed undesirable by the regime, including Romani people, homosexuals, disabled individuals, and political dissidents. The Holocaust occurred primarily in Germany and German-occupied territories, but the Nazis also implemented policies of persecution and extermination in other countries under their control. The Holocaust is considered one of the darkest and most tragic events in human history.
- The Holocaust was a systematic and systematic campaign of extermination carried out by the Nazi regime during World War II. It began in 1933, when Adolf Hitler and the Nazi party came to power in Germany, and continued until the end of the war in 1945.
- Initially, the Nazis targeted specific groups, such as political dissidents and homosexuals, and implemented policies of discrimination and persecution against them. In 1939, the Nazis invaded Poland and began a campaign of mass murder, which initially targeted Polish intellectuals and political leaders. In 1941, the Nazis invaded the Soviet Union and began killing Jews and other perceived enemies on a massive scale.
- The Holocaust reached its peak in 1942, when the Nazis established extermination camps in Poland specifically designed for the mass murder of Jews and other perceived enemies. These camps were equipped with gas chambers, where Jews were killed in large numbers. In addition to extermination camps, the Nazis also operated concentration camps, where prisoners were subjected to forced labor, medical experiments, and other forms of abuse.
- The Holocaust came to an end in 1945, when Allied forces liberated the concentration and extermination camps and the Nazi regime was defeated. By the end of the Holocaust, approximately six million Jews and millions of others had been killed. The full extent of the Holocaust was not fully understood until the liberation of the camps, and the events of the Holocaust continue to be studied and remembered as one of the worst atrocities in human history.
