Transforming the School-to-Prison Pipeline Debra M Pane,Tonette S Rocco,2014-02-05 Revolution not reform is required to release the power of teaching Virtually all teachers possess tremendous power which can be released given the proper exposure We can t get to that point by tinkering with a broken system We must change our intellectual structures definitions and assumptions then we can release teacher power Hilliard 1997 This book was written during a time of growing upheaval and disagreement about how America should educate its students particularly those who are poor diverse and failing school Dominant educational research newspapers and popular movies such as Waiting for Superman continually fuel public debates about whether our 21st century schools provide justice for all decrease the achievement gap and leave no child behind However even though one of teachers greatest concerns and why many leave the profession classroom discipline is rarely brought to the forefront of discussion As a result public discourse does not get into what actually happens during disciplinary moments that ultimately leads to the disproportional tracking of particular students into exclusionary school disciplinary consequences which funnels an underclass of students into the school to prison pipeline This book is a scholarly study presented here as a readable story and practical guide for walking teachers administrators and teacher education programs through the process of transforming traditional ways of thinking about classroom discipline and teaching in order to create student centered creative non punitive classrooms that authentically engage the most alienated and oppressed students in our schools and society

Cavernous Sinus Vinko V. Dolenc,Larry Rogers,2009-07-31 20 years ago Professor Dolenc edited the first comprehensive and up to date text dealing with the cavernous sinus and addressing anyone concerned with the diagnosis and treatment of lesions of the skull base Now he has edited a new volume with articles by specialists in this topic presenting the state of the art in this technology

The Influence of Inattention on Rapid Automated Naming and Reading Skills

Andy V. Pham,2010 The purpose of this study is to determine how behavioral symptoms of inattention predict rapid automatized naming ran performance and reading skills in typically developing children Participants included 104 third and fourth grade children from different elementary schools in mid Michigan Ran performance was assessed using the four Rapid Naming subtests from the ctopp Oral reading fluency and comprehension were assessed using the gort iv and inattention was assessed using the snap iv rating scale Hierarchical regression analyses revealed that all four ran stimuli particularly letter ran predicted reading fluency and comprehension Ratings of inattention predicted ran performance and reading fluency but not comprehension after controlling for age gender ethnicity working memory and estimated iq After controlling for ran performance overall inattention did not significantly predict reading skills Further analyses suggest that ran performance mediated the relation between inattention and reading skills Findings highlight the need to recognize the influence of phonological awareness ran and attention when understanding typical reading development The dissertation citations contained here are published with the permission of ProQuest llc Further reproduction is prohibited without permission Copies of dissertations may be obtained by Telephone 800 1 800 521 0600 Web page http://www.proquest.com/en_US/products/dissertations/individuals.shtml
