

Our Commitment To Cleanliness

Cleaning Summary

Keeping the NHS clean and preventing infection is everybody's responsibility from the Chief Executive to the healthcare cleaner. It is important for patients, visitors, the public and staff.

Cleanliness matters, and to ensure consistency throughout the NHS, and to support hospitals and healthcare services, this commitment has been adopted at every organisation.

This Charter sets out our commitment to ensure a consistently high standard of cleanliness is delivered in all of our healthcare facilities. It also sets out how we would like you to help us maintain high standards.

WE WILL:

- Keep patients in a clean and safe environment and minimise exposure to healthcare associated infections
- Provide a safe, maintained, clean and safe environment, using the most appropriate and up to date cleaning methods and resources
- Monitor hygiene and things to an acceptable condition to ensure effective and safe cleaning to take place regularly
- Assign specific roles and responsibilities for cleaning, either to infection prevention and control, that are underpinned by strong, clear leadership that encourages a culture where cleanliness matters
- Have clinical leads who are educated and promote a cleanliness culture across their organisation
- Conductly monitor cleanliness and hygiene performance
- Take account of your areas about the quality and standards of cleanliness by involving patients and visitors in reporting and monitoring how well we are doing
- Provide the public with clear information on any measures which they can take, to assist in the prevention and control of healthcare associated infections
- Provide the public with clear and precise information relating to the potential risk of contracting a healthcare associated infection. This will include highlighting other hygiene information sources so that patients and public can access up to date best practice
- Provide structured and on-going education and training to ensure all our staff are competent in achieving infection prevention and control practice within the remit of their role
- Design any new facilities with ease of cleaning in mind

WE ASK PATIENTS, VISITORS AND THE PUBLIC TO:

- Follow good hygiene practices which are displayed in and around the organisation
- Tell us if you require any further information about cleanliness or prevention of infection
- Work with us to monitor and improve standards of cleanliness and prevention of infection
