Family Reunion Program:

The Female Offender--1979-80 United States. Congress. House. Committee on the Judiciary. Subcommittee on Courts, Civil Liberties, and the Administration of Justice,1981      Strangers to Neighbours Shauna Labman,Geoffrey Cameron,2020-09-23 As a leading country in global refugee resettlement Canada operates a unique program that allows private groups and individuals to sponsor refugees This innovative approach has received growing international attention but there remains a need for a more expansive understanding of the sponsorship framework and its potential implications within Canada and across the world Strangers to Neighbours explains the origins and development of refugee sponsorship paying particular attention to the unintended consequences and ethical dilemmas it produces for refugee policy The contributors to this collection draw upon law social science and philosophy to bring a more robust and objective perspective on Canada s historical experience with sponsorship into wider conversations about the refugee crisis and resettlement Together they present recent cases that exemplify how the model has been applied and how it functions while also analyzing the challenges that emerge in host sponsor relations This volume further examines how sponsorship has been implemented differently in countries such as the United States and Australia The first dedicated study of refugee sponsorship policy Strangers to Neighbours assembles leading scholars from a range of disciplines to consider whether Canada s system is indeed a sustainable model for the world      New York Court of Appeals. Records and Briefs. New York (State).,      Annual Refugee Consultation United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on the Judiciary. Subcommittee on Immigration,1997      Prison Sex Christopher Hensley,2002 Sex in prison remains a taboo subject This comprehensive volume explores prison sex presenting original research on consensual and nonconsensual intercourse as well as the effects of conjugal visitation policies and HIV AIDS management      A Time for Healing David E. Morgan PhD,2013-01-30 Today in real families only a very small portion of the population comes from nurturing and supportive homes most individuals have been products of dysfunctional families instead In A Time for Healing author Dr David E Morgan provides a study of a dysfunctional family and presents principles necessary for sustaining a healthy family unit Through the interplay of the fictional four generation Gardner family A Time for Healing illustrates some events that can cause a family to be dysfunctional reveals the carnage left from the pain and discusses how to eradicate it The Gardners story shows how unhealthy family rules of behavior are passed down from parents to children and what a devastating effect this process has on families relationships organizational lives and society With ideas gleaned from more than forty years as an educator in the Chicago public schools including both part time and full time in higher education Morgan shows how we can envision and create a better way forward and avoid the imperfections of family dysfunction in the future A Time for Healing offers help for reclaiming the family by creating real effective positive change Cleaning up the family is about character communication forgiveness healing integrity love redemption respect understanding and the ownership of our acts      Exploring the Boundaries of Refugee Law

Jean-Pierre Gauci, Mariagiulia Giuffr , Evangelia (Lilian) Tsourdi, 2015-04-14 Protection challenges around the globe require innovative legal policy and practical responses Drawing primarily from a new generation of researchers in the field of refugee law this volume explores the boundaries of refugee law On the one hand it ascertains the scope of the legal provisions by highlighting new trends in State practice and analysing the jurisprudence of international human rights bodies as well as national and international Courts On the other hand it marks the boundaries of refugee law as legal frontiers whilst exploring new approaches and new frameworks that are necessary in order to address the emerging protection challenges
