

For My Daughter on Graduation Day

The big day is finally here,
You are as happy as can be;
You've made it to the end
Now take some advice from me.

The best days of your life
Have now been left behind;
The future is very bright,
It's time for you to shine.

You must look deep within,
Decide what is good for you;
There's no place for mediocrity.
Only the best will do.

We all have a destiny,
Your's too will be fulfilled;
Lean on what you've been taught
And that which has been instilled.

Poems From the Heart of a Woman Glenda Faye Bagley, 2012-10 My mother Lovella Bagley had ten children She taught her family about Jesus and the biblical principles of His word Her dream was to write a book about her husband and all her children She was married to Lee Earnest Bagley Sr for sixty five years he went home to be with the Lord on December 12 2009 My father had a good sense of humor and an extraordinary personality He provided for his family by working at an apartment complex as a Supervisor of Plumbing in Lubbock Texas In my upcoming book Why am I Here I will talk about specifics in our family's life Our mother was diagnosed with Alzheimer's at the age of seventy five and I watched her sad face as the doctor gave her the news I watched her go from a vibrant woman to being in a wheelchair She was determined to finish writing her poetry in her journal because she was quickly losing her memory Her impeding illness did not discourage her even though she continued to struggle to remember names events and wording Every night she wrote poems and short stories in her journal that she kept in a silver briefcase Some years passed and my siblings and I became her caregivers Throughout the years I thought about that silver briefcase as our family had relocated to Dallas Texas My brother Rodney decided to take a trip to Lubbock Texas to visit relatives During his visit Rodney went to his storage to get furniture and other items to take back to Dallas As he walked through the storage he looked next to a wall and there laid the silver briefcase that held my mother's poems I was so excited I knew there has to be a reason for us finding the silver briefcase In my book Poems from the Heart of a Woman it presents poetry written by my mother as well as myself
