Garmin Forerunner 610 Owner Manual:

Running Free Richard Askwith, 2014-03-06 Shortlisted for the 2015 Thwaites Wainwright prize for nature writing Richard Askwith wanted more Not convinced running had to be all about pounding pavements buying fancy kit and racking up extreme challenges he looked for ways to liberate himself His solution running through muddy fields and up rocky fells running with his dog at dawn running because he s being voluntarily chased by a pack of bloodhounds running to get hopelessly enjoyably lost running fast for the sheer thrill of it Running as nature intended Part diary of a year running through the Northamptonshire countryside part exploration of why we love to run without limits Running Free is an eloquent and inspiring account of running in a forgotten rural way observing wildlife and celebrating the joys of nature An opponent of the commercialisation of running Askwith offers a welcome alternative with practical tips learned the hard way on how to both start and keep running naturally from thawing frozen toes to avoiding a stampede when crossing a field of cows Running Free is about getting back to the basics of why we love to run 4:09:43 Hal Higdon, 2014-02-13 In the first book on this iconic event 4 09 43 Hal Higdon a contributing editor at Runner s World tells the tale of the Boston Marathon bombings The book s title refers to the numbers on the finish line clock when the first bomb exploded In 4 09 43 Higdon views Boston 2013 through the eyes of those running the race You will meet George a runner from Athens birthplace of the modern marathon who at sunrise joins the eerie march of silent runners all aimed at their appointments in Hopkinton where the marathon starts You will meet Michele who at age 2 helped her mother hand water to runners who first ran the marathon while a student at Wellesley College and who decided to run Boston again mainly because her daughter Shannon was now a student at Boston University You will meet Tracy caught on Boylston Street between the two explosions running for her life You will meet Heather a Canadian who limped into the Medical Tent with bloody socks from blisters soon to realize that worse things exist than losing a toenail In what may be a first Hal Higdon used social media in writing 4 09 43 Sunday not yet expecting what might happen the next day Higdon posted a good luck message on his popular Facebook page Perfect weather the author predicted A no excuses day Within minutes runners in Boston responded Neil suggested that he was chilling before the carb a thon continues Christy boasted from her hotel room Bring it Then the explosions on Monday Like all runners Higdon wondered whether marathoners would ever feel safe again Beginning Tuesday runners told him They began blogging on the Internet posting to his Facebook page offering links to their stories so very similar but also so very different Over the next several hours days and weeks Higdon collected the tales of nearly 75 runners who were there whose lives forever would be shadowed by the bombs on Boylston Street In 4 09 43 Higdon presents these stories condensing and integrating them into a smooth flowing narrative that begins with runners boarding the buses at Boston Common continues with the wait at the Athletes Village in Hopkinton and flows through eight separate towns The story does not end until the 23 000 participants encounter the terror on Boylston Street These are not 75 separate stories says Higdon This is one story told as it might have been by a single runner with 75 pairs of eyes One warning about reading 4 09 43 You will cry But you will laugh too because for most of those who covered the 26 miles 385 yards from Hopkinton to Boylston Street this was a joyous journey albeit one that ended in tragedy This is a book as much about the race and the runners in the race as it is about a terrorist attack In future years as people look back on the Boston Marathon bombings 4 09 43 will be the book that everyone will need to have read
