multidisciplinary international range of contributors responding to it to Anderson's oeuvre as a whole and to her life and death Anderson's path breaking work includes A Feminist Philosophy of Religion 1998 and Re-visioning Gender in Philosophy of Religion: Reason, Love and Epistemic Locatedness 2012 Her last work critiques then attempts to rebuild concepts of love and vulnerability Reason, critical self-reflexivity, emotion, intuition and imagination, myth and narrative all have a role to play. Social justice, friendship, conversation, dialogue, collective work are central to her thinking. Contributors trace the emergence of Anderson's late thinking, extend her conversations with the history of philosophy and contemporary voices such as hooks and Butler and bring her work into contact with debates in theology, Continental and analytic philosophy, feminist, queer and transgender theory, postcolonial theory, African American studies. Discussions engage with the Me Too movement and sexual violence, climate change, sweatshops, neoliberalism, death and dying and the nature of the human. Originally published as a special issue of the journal Angelaki, this large wide-ranging collection featuring a number of distinguished contributors makes a significant contribution to the burgeoning interdisciplinary research on interpersonal relations, sympathy and empathy, affect and emotion.
