

If you run out of space

4

If you run out of space in your answer booklet, ask the invigilator for a new booklet and complete your present booklet and name on the front page. If you are continuing with an answer that you started on your first booklet, write the question number again in the new booklet before continuing with your answer.

If you need to go back and write more for any of your answers at any stage, go to the end of the last answer that you wrote in your answer booklet, to the next available space, fill in the question number again and then continue your answer.

Things important to follow

- ✓ Write your candidate answer number.
- ✓ Read the 15-point (contact) of the examination centre in London. If you have any questions about what it says, ask your Department/Programme coordinator.
- ✓ Take only authorised material into the examination room. If you are found in possession of unauthorised material (for example, maps, a mobile/ cell phone) you may be mistaken yourself for a member of the Invigilators.
- ✓ Write in blue or black ink only, and use only pencil for graphs and diagrams. The use of rulers is only permitted in geography examinations.
- ✓ Read through your plan or working out that you do not want marked.
- ✓ At the end of the examination, place the below material before invigilators together in the following sequence:
 - the blue cover sheet at the front
 - the examination paper that says if this is the final of examination paper in which you write answers
 - the answer booklet(s)
 - signed paper booklet (if you sit in a separate language examination)
 - graph paper

Tie up the above material together with a string/zip.
