Lessons from Pope Francis for Children Angela M. Burrin, 2014 Your Happy Marriage: 27 Lessons Learned from 27 Years of Married Life Boni Belen, Alice Belen, 2021-04-22 Boni and Alice are the co authors of Your Happy Marriage 27 Lessons Learned from 27 Years of Married Life They wrote this journal of their married life in their desire to share their poignant and personal experiences practical insights and Christian principles for those engaged or already married Boni and Alice are hopeful that the 27 lessons they share will help provide a renewed impetus as couples navigate through the joyful and rough and tumble terrains of that greatest adventure of all human loves called Marriage

Teaching Kids to Care for God's Creation Mary Elizabeth Clark, 2018 We all know Pope Francis has issued an urgent call to bring care for the Earth into both our spirituality and our daily actions But how do we get started especially with children and families Here Sister Mary Elizabeth Clark responds to Pope Francis call by offering thirty lessons that will engage children catechists and families in the good work of keeping our planet livable and sustainable for coming generations Inspired by passages in Laudato Si On Care for Our Common Home the lessons and practical activities are fun and thought provoking The reflections and prayers in each lesson help connect our practical actions to the gospel and deepen our spiritual sense of our common home From activities for conserving water to developing a greater awareness of all of God's creation this book will be a great resource for catechists and families

Parenting Your Kids with Grace (Birth to Age 10) Dr. Greg, Lisa Popcak, 2021-04-01 Believe it or not the Catholic family isn't primarily a human institution It's a divine one By uniting with the sacramental life of the Church your common ordinary crazy family becomes something sacred a domestic church Family therapist and parent Gregory Popcak and his wife Lisa are back with Parenting Your Kids with Grace Building on their best selling book Parenting with Grace first published twenty years ago this new volume draws on the same parenting principles and provides up to date research to guide parents through each stage of child development from birth to age ten Practical faithful and humorous Parenting Your Kids with Grace addresses four key questions Are Catholic families called to be different from other families in the way we relate to one another in the home If so how What does an authentic family based approach to Catholic spirituality look like in practice What can the latest research tell us about creating a faithful home and raising faithful kids How can Catholic families be outposts of evangelization and positive social change By checking our basic assumptions about parenting against both the Church's vision and what science can teach about living out that vision in healthy ways we can discover God's plan for parenting healthy godly kids

Children and Sustainable Development Antonio M. Battro, Pierre Léna, Marcelo Sánchez Sorondo, Joachim von Braun, 2016-12-08 This book addresses the changes in education practices especially basic education necessitated by the global challenges of climate change and sustainable development and in a context characterized by increasing poverty and inequality migration and refugees Written by a range of international scholars scientists and grassroots practitioners from Africa Latin America Asia India China Malaysia and Europe the individual contributions focus on education policies and child development in various social contexts Case based experiences from both developed and developing countries provide inspiration and shed new light on the fundamental changes needed to adapt existing school systems and teacher training to face the challenges of the future In this regard the need to empower children themselves is emphasized All contributions are based on a Workshop hosted in November 2015 by the Pontifical Academy of Sciences at the Vatican entitled Children and Sustainable Development A Challenge for Education and follow three other significant events on sustainable development in 2015 namely the publication of Laudato Si the Encyclical Letter from Pope Francis the release of the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals and the COP21 Conference in Paris

Education Marcelo Suárez-Orozco, Carola Suárez-Orozco, 2022-07-05 In an age of catastrophes unchecked climate change extreme poverty forced migrations war and terror all compounded by the COVID 19 pandemic how can schooling be reengineered and education reimaged This book calls for a new global approach to education that responds to these overlapping crises in order to enrich and enhance the lives of children everywhere Marcelo Su rez Orozco and Carola Su rez Orozco convene scholars and practitioners from a range of disciplines including anthropology neuroscience demography psychology child development sociology and economics who offer incisive essays on the global state of education Contributors consider how educational policy and practice can foster social inclusion and improve outcomes for all children They emphasize the centrality of education to social and environmental justice as well as the philosophical foundations of education and its centrality to human flourishing personal dignity and sustainable development Chapters examine topics such as the neuroscience of education the uses of technology to engage children who are not reached by traditional schooling education for climate change the education of immigrants refugees and the forcibly displaced and how to address and mitigate the effects of inequality and xenophobia in the classroom Global and interdisciplinary Education speaks directly to urgent contemporary challenges Contributors include Stefania Giannini the director of education for UNESCO development economist Jeffrey Sachs cognitive psychologist Howard Gardner Carla Rinaldi president of the Reggio Children Foundation and academics from leading global universities The book features a foreword by Pope Francis Pope Francis Family Devotional Rebecca Vitz Chericco, 2016-08-15 Let us make room in our heart and in our day for the Lord As Mary and Joseph also did Pope Francis Now with the Pope Francis Family Devotional you can take a few short minutes every day to grow in faith together as a family You ll be inspired by a quote from the Holy Father and a simple reflection to spark discussion Use at dinner time to guide prayer and conversation Or at breakfast or bedtime as the perfect start or close to each day s activities If you ve been looking for a simple but structured way to add reflection and prayer into your family s life Pope Francis Family Devotional is a gift from God Robotics, AI, and Humanity Joachim von Braun, Margaret S. Archer, Gregory M. Reichberg, Marcelo Sánchez Sorondo, 2021-02-12 This open access book examines recent advances in how artificial intelligence AI and robotics have elicited widespread debate over their benefits and drawbacks for humanity The emergent technologies have for instance implications within medicine and health care employment transport manufacturing agriculture and armed conflict While there has been considerable attention devoted to robotics AI applications in each of these domains a fuller picture of their connections and the possible consequences for our shared humanity seems needed This volume covers multidisciplinary research examines current research frontiers in AI robotics and likely impacts on societal well being human robot relationships as well as the opportunities and risks for sustainable development and peace The attendant ethical and religious dimensions of these technologies are addressed and implications for regulatory policies on the use and future development of AI robotics technologies are elaborated

The SAGE Encyclopedia of World Poverty Mehmet Odekon, 2015-06-15 The SAGE Encyclopedia of World Poverty Second Edition addresses the persistence of poverty across the globe while updating and expanding the landmark work Encyclopedia of World Poverty originally published in 2006 prior to the economic calamities of 2008 For instance while continued high rates of income inequality might be unsurprising in developing countries such as Mexico the Organization of Economic Co operation and Development OECD reported in May 2013 even countries with historically low levels of income inequality have experienced significant increases over the past decade including Denmark Sweden and Germany The U N and the World Bank also emphasize the persistent nature of the problem It is not all bad news In March 2013 the Guardian newspaper reported Some of the poorest people in the world are becoming significantly less poor according to a groundbreaking academic study which has taken a new approach to measuring deprivation The report by Oxford University's poverty and human development initiative predicts that countries among the most impoverished in the world could see acute poverty eradicated within 20 years if they continue at present rates On the other hand the U N says environmental threats from climate change could push billions more into extreme poverty in coming decades All of these points lead to the need for a revised updated and expanded edition of the Encyclopedia of World Poverty Key Features 775 evaluated and updated and 175 entirely new entries New Reader's Guide categories Signed articles with cross references Further Readings will be accompanied by pedagogical elements Updated Chronology Resource Guide Glossary and thorough new Index The SAGE Encyclopedia of World Poverty Second Edition is a dependable source for students and researchers who are researching world poverty making it a must have reference for all academic libraries
