How To Braid Natural Black Hair:

Women of Color and Hair Bias in the Work Environment Francis, Kula A., Clarke, Anna M., 2023-11-09 Professional women of color identify with various natural Black hairstyles including braids dread locs twists and other natural coiled styles Black women who work in professional settings have historically encountered negative stares remarks and biases They tend to be stereotyped on their level of professionalism and competency if they choose not to conform to mainstream hairstyles Women wearing Black hairstyles are often perceived as less beautiful and less professional than those who wear Eurocentric hairstyles Professional Black women are often challenged in these situations where they must decide how to manage their identity in the work environment Too often professional Black women apply and interview for positions where their natural hairstyle becomes the topic of interest If given the opportunity for employment subtle references may be made about their hairstyles which suggests such hairstyles are not in alignment with the professional climate of an organization This type of pressure makes Black women feel forced to conform to Eurocentric hairstyles These expectations lead to feelings of social inadequacy hurt and discouragement of individuals in their workplace The apprehensions with hair acceptance are even more concerning when considering that the notion of straight groomed hair has been largely expected not only by Whites but also by many people of color as well Women of Color and Hair Bias in the Work Environment explores the experiences of professional women of color who have had encountered feelings of uncertainty self consciousness or differing treatment and or discrimination because of their natural hairstyle choices The intent is to shine a light on the challenges professional women of color face and how these experiences impact their hiring and or work environment Covering topics such as hairstyle empowerment ethics of hair bias and diversity of hair this book serves as an invaluable resource for educators social workers psychologists organizational leadership business professionals and more This book also allows women to be encouraged by stories of professional women who have overcome the societal burdens placed on natural hair

A Cultural History of Hair in the Modern Age Geraldine Biddle-Perry, 2020-12-10 Over the last century there has been a revolution in self presentation and social attitudes towards hair Developments in mass manufacturing advances in chemical science and new understandings of bodies and minds have been embraced by new kinds of hairdressers and their clientele and embodied in styles that reflect shifting ideals of what it is to be and to look modern The emergence of the ladies hairdressing salon the rise of the celebrity stylist the impact of Hollywood an expanding mass media and a new synergy between fashions in clothing and hairstyles have rippled out globally Fashions in hair styles and their representation have taken on new meanings as a way of resisting dominant social structures experimenting with social taboos and expressing a modern sense of self From the 1920s bob to the punk cut hair has continued to be deeply involved in society's larger issues Drawing on a wealth of visual textual and object sources and illustrated with 75 images A Cultural History of Hair in the Modern Age presents essays that explore how politics science religion fashion beauty the visual arts and popular culture have reshaped modern hair and its significance as an agent of social change

Dismantling the Master's Clock Rasheedah Phillips, 2025-01-28 A radical new treatise on time quantum physics and racial justice from world renowned artist and advocate Rasheedah Phillips of Black Quantum Futurism Dismantling the Master's Clock is a groundbreaking debut work that synthesizes philosophy and the history of science with Black cultural traditions speculative fiction and Phillips's own art practice to argue for a more equitable access to time and the future While some processes like aging birth or car crashes seem to occur in only one direction of time by the apparent logic of the universe human consciousness should experience time both backwards and forwards Though past and present organize our lives like unarguable fact the physicists who study time are much less certain Linear time is an illusion explains Rasheedah Phillips a construct even science contests It is based more on Western history and systems of social order than on nature or the variety of human existence Both indigenous African conceptions of time and quantum physics recognize how the past present and future act upon and modify each other Afrodiasporic identity is itself a time traveling phenomenon in which the past is always present Phillips unfurls time's legacy of racial oppression from maritime navigation for colonial expansion and the timekeeping methods of plantation overseers to the establishment of Greenwich Mean Time and the Western Scramble for Africa time has been a homogenizing project of the last few centuries Phillips unsettles dominant assumptions of space and time highlighting how Black communities have long subverted these through alternative temporal frameworks

The House of Beauty Arabelle Sicardi, 2025-10-14 One of Them's Best LGBTQ Books of 2025 When I tell you that beauty is a monster I need you to know it is my favorite kind So begins Arabelle Sicardi's blazingly original collection of essays A former beauty editor Arabelle has devoted their entire adult life to the subject of beauty they have analyzed it criticized it praised it benefited from it loathed it Now in The House of Beauty they get to the contradictions at the heart of it beauty and horror two sides of the same coin With their signature blend of intellectual rigor and poetic sensibility Arabelle explores how beauty myths are crafted sold and weaponized from corporate boardrooms to your local nail salon Follow alongside Arabelle as they trace the global trail of the shimmering mica in your beauty products choose your own adventure style or journey into the past to unearth the sinister connection between fragrance and fascism Bear witness as they visit a tech convention focused on the next horrifying frontier of body modification or as they ask what's at stake in the braids we weave in our hair Sharp yet tender in their observations Arabelle challenges readers to reconsider beauty as more than a product of consumption inviting a vision of beauty rooted in community and self care one that transcends industry driven ideals Equal parts expos and cultural reckoning The House of Beauty cracks open an industry that sells dreams and wields power Once you have encountered Arabelle's words there is no looking back
