with Ralph Waldo Ellison In this collection the editors offer fourteen original essays that seek to examine and re examine Ellison s life and work in the context of its meanings for our own age the early twenty first century the age of Obama a period that is seemingly post racial and yet all too acutely racial Following a careful introduction that situates Ellison s writings in the context of new approaches and interest in his work the book offers new essays examining Ellison s 1952 masterpiece Invisible Man It then turns to his vast unfinished second novel Three Days Before the Shooting with detailed readings of that powerful and elusive narrative These essays are the first sustained treatments of that posthumous work The New Territory concludes with five chapters that discuss Ellison s political cultural and historical significance probing how he speaks to the contemporary moment and beyond
