BSI, Beck Scale for Suicide Ideation Aaron T. Beck, Robert A. Steer, 1991 BSS Aaron T. Beck, Robert A. Steer, 1991

Assessment, Treatment, and Prevention of Suicidal Behavior Robert I Yufit, David Lester, 2004-11-03 Current and comprehensive information concerning the assessment and treatment of suicidal persons and the prevention of suicidal behavior. The eighth leading cause of death in the United States and the second leading cause among U S teens suicide is unique in being self inflicted and is as such often preventable. By assessing the risk of suicide accurately providing effective treatment according to this risk and implementing strategies against suicidal urges mental health professionals can successfully guide their clients away from this senseless taking of life. Assessment Treatment and Prevention of Suicidal Behavior provides the most current and comprehensive source of information guidelines and case studies for working with clients at risk of suicide. It offers clinicians counselors and other mental health professionals a practical toolbox on three main areas of interest. Screening and Assessment covers empirically based assessment techniques and how they can define dimensions of vulnerability and measure the risk of self destructive behavior. Authors discuss research on the use of each screening instrument guidelines and suggestions for using the instrument in practice and a case study illustrating its application. Intervention and Treatment compares several different approaches for structuring psychotherapy with suicidal clients. Each author covers a psychotherapy system its application to suicidal clients and a case study of its real world use. Suicide and Violence explores the relationship between suicidal individuals and violence covering suicide in specific contexts such as school violence police confrontations and terrorist violence. This section also includes a discussion of the increased risk of suicide in our more insecure and violent world as well as how to promote coping styles for these new anxieties. While addressed mainly to psychologists social workers and other mental health professionals for use in serving their clients as well as students of psychology Assessment Treatment and Prevention of Suicidal Behavior is also an accessible and valuable resource for educators school counselors and others in related fields. Handbook of Suicide Prevention Updesh Kumar, 2025-04-14 The Handbook of Suicide Prevention covers a broad range of topics related to suicidal behaviour including its underlying causes risk factors prevention strategies and therapeutic approaches. With contributions by renowned experts in the field the volume brings forth the latest research and clinical insights into suicidal behaviour. It highlights evidence based practices effective in reducing suicide risk. It provides a comprehensive overview of the multidimensional perspectives including biological psychological and social factors contributing to suicidal ideation and behaviour. The book provides a nuanced and extensive understanding of how suicide risk and protective factors are shaped by social cultural and political contexts across the lifespan. The last section of the volume highlights the need for a multifaceted approach to suicide prevention by leveraging the latest technologies and therapeutic modalities while also addressing the social and cultural factors that contribute to suicide risk. Suicidal behaviour remains an intriguing phenomenon that demands addressing being among the leading causes of death worldwide The handbook is a compilation of essential resources that offers a multitude of theoretical and compassionate approaches to understanding and addressing this complex phenomenon Its practical guidance and evidence based recommendations make it an essential reference for anyone working in suicide prevention mental health and social work Comprehensive Handbook of Psychological Assessment, Volume 2 Mark J. Hilsenroth, Daniel L. Segal, 2003-09-16 Comprehensive Handbook of Psychological Assessment Volume 2 presents the most up to date coverage on personality assessment from leading experts Contains contributions from leading researchers in this area Provides the most comprehensive up to date information on personality assessment Presents conceptual information about the tests The Handbook of Adult Clinical Psychology Alan Carr, Muireann McNulty, 2016-03-31 The second edition of the Handbook of Adult Clinical Psychology An Evidence Based Practice Approach like its predecessor provides clinical psychologists in training with a comprehensive practice handbook to help build the skills necessary to complete a clinical placement in the field of adult mental health While practical in orientation the book is based solidly on empirical evidence Building on the success of the previous edition this handbook has been extensively revised in a number of ways Throughout the book the text references and website addresses and have been updated to reflect important developments since the publication the first edition Recent research findings on the epidemiology aetiology course outcome assessment and treatment of all psychological problems considered in this volume have been incorporated into the text Account has been taken of changes in the diagnosis and classification of psychological problems reflected in the DSM 5 Chapters on ADHD in adults emotion focused therapy radically open dialectical behaviour therapy and schema therapy have been added The book is divided into 6 sections Section 1 covers conceptual frameworks for practice lifespan development classification and epidemiology CBT psychodynamic emotion focused systemic and bio medical models and general assessment procedures Section 2 deals with mood problems depression bipolar disorder suicide risk and anger management Section 3 focuses on anxiety problems social phobia generalized anxiety disorder panic disorder obsessive compulsive disorder post traumatic stress disorder and depersonalization disorder Section 4 deals with psychological problems linked to physical health health anxiety somatization chronic pain adjustment to cancer and eating disorders Section 5 focuses on other significant psychological problems that come to the attention of clinical psychologist in adult mental health services ADHD in adults alcohol and other drug problems psychosis and psychological problems in older adults Section 6 contains chapters on therapeutic approaches to psychological distress related to complex childhood trauma dialectical behaviour therapy for borderline personality disorder racially open dialectical behaviour for over controlled presentations and schema therapy Each of the chapters on clinical problems explains how to assess and treat the condition in an evidence based way with reference to case material Interventions from cognitive behavioural psychodynamic interpersonal systemic and biomedical approaches are described where there is evidence that they are effective for the problem in question Skill building exercises and further reading for psychologists and
