The Spectator life by states manual ,1921 The Hummer Elaine Cardenas, Ellen Gorman, 2007 This book is a study of America's most controversial personal automobile. Featuring more than fifteen essays, this collection analyzes the Hummer through a wide array of disciplines. The editors Elaine Cardenas and Ellen Gorman have divided the essays into four groups: myth and space, myth and body, myth and discourse, and myth as vehicle. An introduction by the editors places the study of the Hummer in a cultural context from cover page 4.

The Men Who Stare at Goats Jon Ronson, 2011-06-28 Now a major film starring George Clooney, Ewan McGregor, and Jeff Bridges, this New York Times bestseller is a disturbing and often hilarious look at the US military's long flirtation with the paranormal and the psy op soldiers that are still fighting the battle. Bizarre military history. In 1979, a crack commando unit was established by the most gifted minds within the US Army. Defying all known laws of physics and accepted military practice, they believed that a soldier could adopt the cloak of invisibility, pass cleanly through walls, and perhaps most chillingly, kill goats just by staring at them. They were the First Earth Battalion, entrusted with defending America from all known adversaries. And they really weren't joking. What's more, they're back, and they're fighting the War on Terror. An uproarious exploration of American military paranoia. With investigations ranging from the mysterious Goat Lab to Uri Geller's covert psychic work with the CIA to the increasingly bizarre role played by a succession of US presidents, this might just be the funniest, most unsettling book you will ever read, if only because it is all true and is still happening today.
