The Final Forest William Dietrich, 2011-07-01 2011 Outstanding Title University Press Books for Public and Secondary School Libraries Winner of the Pacific Northwest Booksellers Association Award Before Forks a small town on Washington's Olympic Peninsula became famous as the location for Stephenie Meyer's Twilight book series it was the self-proclaimed Logging Capital of the World and ground zero in a regional conflict over the fate of old growth forests Since Pulitzer Prize-winning journalist William Dietrich first published The Final Forest in 1992 logging in Forks has given way to tourism but even with its new fame Forks is still a home to loggers and others who make their living from the surrounding forests The new edition recounts how forest policy and practices have changed since the early 1990s and also tells us what has happened in Forks and where the actors who were so important to the timber wars are now For more information on the author go to <http://williamdietrich.com>

Connected Roberto J. González, 2020-08-10 This is the true story of how against all odds a remote Mexican pueblo built its own autonomous cell phone network without help from telecom companies or the government Anthropologist Roberto J. González paints a vivid and nuanced picture of life in a Oaxaca mountain village and the collective tribulation, triumph and tragedy the community experienced in pursuit of getting connected In doing so this book captures the challenges and contradictions facing Mexico's indigenous peoples today as they struggle to wire themselves into the 21st century using mobile technologies ingenuity and sheer determination It also holds a broader lesson about the great paradox of the digital age by exploring how constant connection through virtual worlds can hinder our ability to communicate with those around us
