Making Good Trevor Hart, 2023-05 God spoke and all that is and all that ever will be came into existence God alone can be called uncreated and Creator and creation can only accomplish that which already exists within God's imagination In Making Good Trevor Hart argues that human creativity is always a matter of unfolding the possibilities already latent within the original creative event Making Good contends that while humans must acknowledge the unique and incomparable dimensions of God's creative activity the biblical theology of creation encourages rather than prohibits human creativity within a language of creation Hart's basic contention is that the God known as the Father of Jesus Christ is no domineering deity who jealously seeks to protect his creative prerogatives but one whose own creativity calls forth inspires and enables creative responses on the part of his human creatures Making Good blends biblical historical and systematic theology into conversation with philosophy aesthetics and developments in creative theory among the social sciences Hart renders a theological account of human artistry and the wider human activities of making good

Transforming Work, 2024-07-15 Transforming Work offers a radical re-orientation of the nature and future of work and implications for mission. In conversation with David Bosch's Transforming Mission and other global and ecumenical voices, 21 leaders offer their vision for transforming the world of work and revisioning work to offer a transforming gift to the world. Writing from biblical and historical perspectives with case studies and cultural exegesis, they explore work and leisure ethics and economics, technologies and Artificial Intelligence. It is time to discern where God is transforming work in our cities and farms, shops and classrooms, politics and agencies.

The Craft of Church Planting Christian Selvaratnam, 2022-06-30 Drawing on insights from the training practices of the English medieval craft guilds, a global survey of 500 church planters, interviews with artists and church planting trainers, and the author's 30 years of ministry experience, The Craft of Church Planting offers a distinctive and imaginative perspective on the methods used to train future practitioners in the art of church planting. Demonstrating how training for the next generation of church planting leaders might be informed by the historic master-apprentice model, guild learning, communities of creativity, and an artisan approach to ministry, this book is a vital resource to inform the methods of training for the next generation of church planters.

Human Technological Enhancement and Theological Anthropology Victoria Lorrimar, 2022-05-05 A cross-disciplinary theological engagement with proposals for the technological enhancement of humans, including radical life extension, mind uploading, mood enhancement, and moral enhancement. This work draws on metaphor studies, cognitive sciences, and literary studies to develop an account of human creativity in relation to divine creativity.

Spark Al Gordon, 2026-03-10 Creativity is your birthright, the rich spiritual inheritance of your soul. Understanding this and what to do with it today is the birthplace of personal and communal transformation. When's the last time you encountered such a message? That your creativity is not only built into your very identity, an indispensable part of who you are, but necessary. In an age of AI hype, burnout, and relentless comparison, our creative fire is constantly under attack. We second-guess ourselves. We procrastinate. We shrink back. And the tragedy is we begin to believe the lie that creativity is for the few, not for us. In Spark, Al Gordon challenges the lies and offers a life-changing framework for reigniting your creative purpose. Starting with the biblical story of God as Creator, Spark will equip you with a powerful set of counter-cultural tools, such as how to ignite your imagination and break free from creative blocks. Rediscover the sacred purpose of original creativity in a world of endless content. Embrace risk and failure as fuel for growth and transformation. Become part of the Renaissance movement, empowering the creativity of all believers. Whether you're an artist, leader, entrepreneur, pastor, or dreamer, your creativity is essential, and it flows from your soul. In the years to come unlocking your creative gift is going to be essential It s time to step into your God given creativity Fuel the fire And ignite the potential of your creative soul Al Gordon reminds us that creativity isn t for a few it s the birthright of every believer Spark will stir your imagination strengthen your faith and send you into the world convinced that your creativity really can change things Jennie Allen bestselling author and speaker Making Good Helen Oppenheimer,2001 In this text the author discusses questions and issues relating to what we can mean by calling any creation good human or divine Her starting point is that creation divine or human involves ethical responsibility The questions raised lead straight to an examination of the problem of evil Divine Christology in the Epistle to the Hebrews Nick Brennan,2021-09-23 Nick Brennan investigates the depiction of the Son s divine nature in the Epistle to the Hebrews despite little attention being directly given to the Son s divinity in recent study of Hebrews Brennan argues that not only is the Son depicted as divine in the Epistle but that this depiction ranges outside the early chapters in which it is most often noted and is theologically relevant to the pattern of the Author s argument Beginning with a survey of the state of contemporary scholarship on the Son s divinity in Hebrews and a discussion of the issues connected to predicating divinity of the Son in the Epistle Brennan analyses the application of Old Testament texts to the Son which in their original context refer to God 1 6 10 12 and demonstrates how the Pastor not only affirms the Son s divinity but also the significance of his exaltation as God He then discusses how Heb 3 3 4 witnesses to the divinity of the Son in Hebrews explores debates on the relation of the Son s indestructible life Heb 7 16 to his divinity and demonstrates how two key concepts in Hebrews covenant and sonship reinforce the Son s divinity Brennan thus concludes that the Epistle not only portrays the Son as God but does so in a manner which is a pervasive aspect of its thought and is theologically salient to many features of the Epistle s argument Made for Goodness Desmond Tutu,Mpho Tutu,2010-02-20 We are made for goodness We are made for love We are made for friendliness We are made for togetherness Desmond Tutu In this personal and inspirational book the late beloved Nobel Prize winner and humanitarian shares the secret of joy and hope in the face of life s difficulties Archbishop Desmond Tutu witnessed some of the world s darkest moments for decades fighting the racist government policy of apartheid and since then being an ambassador of peace amidst political diplomatic and natural disasters Yet people find him and his work joyful and hopeful In Made for Goodness Tutu shares his source of strength and optimism Written with his daughter Mpho who is also an ordained Anglican minister Tutu argues that God has made us for goodness and when we simply start walking in the direction of this calling God is there to meet us encourage us embrace us God has made the world as a grand theater for us to work out this call to goodness it is up to us to live up to this calling but God is there to help us every step of the way So tackling our worst problems takes on new meaning and is bolstered with hope and the expectation that that is exactly where God will show up Father and daughter offer an inspiring message of hope that will transform readers into activists for change and blessing Art Matters Bernard Koenig,2009 This is an overview of art criticism as it relates to both the value of art and the aesthetics of art The author offers a new perspective on how science philosophy and art overlap each other showing that art can give us knowledge of our world and our place in it the same way that science or philosophy can Instead of exploring the emotive understanding of the experience of art that such experiences release certain uniquely satisfying feelings within us he argues that art is a deeply significant way of knowing the natural and the human world His discussion incorporates both fiction and music into the notional forms of classical visual art The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,2003 The Photoplay as Literary Art Walter Barnes,1936 The Journal of Educational Thought ,1986

The Story Biz Handbook Dianne de Las Casas,2008-09-30 This dynamite book merges the yin and yang of storytelling and business Beginning with wonderful tips and advice about the art and presentation of storytelling this is a complete resource about how to build a storytelling career Cover Personal Revival Gary Galbraith,2007-03 Since God is Omnipresent closeness to him is not a matter of distance but intimacy God has created you to be in a personal relationship with Him If this intimacy is lost all is lost Do you feel lost Whether you have never known God in a personal way or whether you have lost touch with Him or if you simply desire to draw closer then personal revival is what you are looking for Drawing close to the Lord is really quite easy we make it so hard Revival in its simplest form is responding to the invitation of God to come to Him God is the initiator we are the responders Take a look with me at the lives of seven servants of God who experienced a personal revival Let their experiences teach you what it means to be spiritually alive Books & Culture ,1999 Neo-pagan Sacred Art and Altars Sabina Magliocco,2001 Mystic meanings behind the flourishing art of modern day pagans and witches New Culture ,1979 Persuasive Artistry George Alexander Kennedy,Duane Frederick Watson,1991
