African Womanhood and the Feminist Agenda Musingafi, Maxwell Constantine Chando, Hungwe, Chipu, 2024-01-16 Within academic circles there is a longstanding issue concerning the portrayal and understanding of African womanhood. Frequently these narratives are crafted by outsiders predominantly Western scholars often distorting the lived experiences and unique perspectives of African women. This has led to a skewed and sometimes negative perception of African women reinforcing stereotypes and sidelining their voices in critical discussions. Moreover this misrepresentation has real world consequences as it impacts social justice initiatives and development projects that rely on misguided narratives rather than the authentic voices of African women. African Womanhood and the Feminist Agenda emerges as an essential solution to the misrepresentation of African women. This comprehensive and meticulously researched book offers an alternative narrative one that is rooted in African perspectives and experiences. It addresses the historical cultural and political dimensions of African womanhood providing a rich and nuanced understanding of this multifaceted topic. Thirty Years of Public Sector Reforms in Africa Paulos Chanie, Paschal B. Mihyo, 2013 Over the past three decades African countries have been reforming their public sector with a view to improving efficiency effectiveness accountability and transparency as part of efforts to improve the delivery of public services. Reform actions have included privatisation public private partnerships commercialisation and adoption of private sector approaches in managing public organisations. This book put together by OSSREA reviews measures by African countries in that regard the extent to which the measures have achieved their intended results as well as the factors behind the failure to achieve those results where this was the case. Promoting Gender Equity in Selected Public Universities of Kenya Jane Onsongo, 2011 The purpose of this study was to examine sustainable gender equity interventions in selected public universities. The study used descriptive survey and case study research methods to carry out an in depth analysis of the gender equity interventions in selected public universities in Kenya. The sample consisted of four public universities that were selected because they had established gender centers institutes that were assumed to be coordinating gender equity intervention. The study has the following objectives: To establish the existing gender inequalities in the formal organisational structure of the selected universities; To identify and assess sustainability of gender equity interventions in the selected public universities; To analyse the national regional international and organisational culture and policy contexts that have influenced and supported the introduction of the identified gender equity interventions; To investigate the attitudes of staff students and management towards the gender equity interventions and to recommend appropriate institutional strategies to address existing gender inequities. Gender and Citizenship in the Global Age Amri, Laroussi, Ramtohul, Ramola, 2015-03-01 One of the major issues this book examines is what the African experience and identity have contributed to the debate on citizenship in the era of globalisation. The volume presents case studies of different African contexts illustrating the gendered aspects of citizenship as experienced by African men and women Citizenship carries manifold gendered aspects and given the distinct gender roles and responsibilities globalisation affects citizenship in different ways It further examines new forms of citizenship emerging from the current era dominated by a neoliberal focus The book is not exclusive in terms of theorisation but its focus on African contexts with an in depth analysis taking into consideration local culture and practices and their implications for citizenship provides a good foundation for further scholarly work on gender and citizenship in Africa Uganda Confidential ,1999 Higher Education and Economic Development in Africa David Elliot Bloom,2006 The Genetic and Environmental Basis for Diseases in Understudied Populations Nicola Mulder,Zané Lombard,Mayowa Ojo Owolabi,Solomon Fiifi Ofori-Acquah,2020-12-15 This eBook is a collection of articles from a Frontiers Research Topic Frontiers Research Topics are very popular trademarks of the Frontiers Journals Series they are collections of at least ten articles all centered on a particular subject With their unique mix of varied contributions from Original Research to Review Articles Frontiers Research Topics unify the most influential researchers the latest key findings and historical advances in a hot research area Find out more on how to host your own Frontiers Research Topic or contribute to one as an author by contacting the Frontiers Editorial Office frontiersin.org about contact Gendered Worlds ,2004 Genetics of Complex Traits & Diseases from Under-Represented Populations Segun Fatumo,Tinashe Chikowore,Karoline Kuchenbaecker,2022-02-22 Becoming an African University Carol Sicherman,2005 For four decades Makerere University known as the Oxford of Africa was the sole university level institution in all of East Africa A fabled Mecca for aspiring youth it trained many of the region s first generation of intellectual and political leaders including the present presidents of Kenya and Tanzania It remains one of Africa s most important universities today As one of the first comprehensive look at an African university this book tells the story of Makerere s colonial beginnings its efflorescence during the 1950s and 1960s its calamitous decline during nearly two decades of tyranny and civil war and its resurgence following the restoration of peace and relative stability Tradition and Transition Philip G.
