How Reading Is Written A Brief Index To Gertrude Stein:

How Reading is Written Astrid Lorange, 2013 The Fate of Difficulty in the Poetry of Our Time Nicholas Nace, Charles Altieri, 2017-10-15

The Fate of Difficulty in the Poetry of Our Time offers original readings of poems composed in this century poems that are challenging to follow challenging to understand challenging to discuss and challenging to enjoy Difficult poetry of the past relied on allusion syntactic complexity free association and strange juxtapositions The new poetry breaks with the old in its stunning variety its questioning of inherited values labels and narratives its multilingualism its origin in and production of unnamed affects and its coherence around critical and social theorists as much as other poets The essays in this volume include poets writing on the works of a younger generation Lyn Hejinian on Paolo Javier Bob Perelman on Rachel Zolf Roberto Tejada on Rosa Alcal influential writers addressing the work of peers Ben Lerner on Maggie Nelson Michael W Clune on Aaron Kunin critics making imaginative leaps to encompass challenging work Brian M Reed on Sherwin Bitsui Siobhan Philips on Juliana Spahr and younger scholars coming to terms with poets who continue to govern new poetic experimentation Joseph Jeon on Myung Mi Kim Lytle Shaw on Lisa Robertson In pairings that are both intuitive Marjorie Perloff on Craig Dworkin and unexpected Langdon Hammer on Srikanth Reddy The Fate of Difficulty in the Poetry of Our Time illuminates the myriad pathways and strategies for exploring difficult poetry of the present

Modernist Literature and European Identity Birgit Van Puymbroeck, 2020-05-13

Modernist Literature and European Identity examines how European and non European authors debated the idea of Europe in the first half of the twentieth century It shifts the focus from European modernism to modernist Europe and shows how the notion of Europe was constructed in a variety of modernist texts Authors such as Ford Madox Ford T S Eliot Gertrude Stein Aim C saire and Nancy Cunard each developed their own notion of Europe They engaged in transnational networks and experimented with new forms of writing supporting or challenging a European ideal Building on insights gained from global modernism and network theory this book suggests that rather than defining Europe through a set of core principles we may also regard it as an open or weak construct a crossroads where different authors and views converged and collided

The Evolutions of Modernist Epic Václav Paris, 2021-01-07

Modernist epic is more interesting and more diverse than we have supposed As a radical form of national fiction it appeared in many parts of the world in the early twentieth century Reading a selection of works from the United States England Ireland Czechoslovakia and Brazil The Evolutions of Modernist Epic develops a comparative theory of this genre and its global development That development was it argues bound up with new ideas about biological evolution During the first decades of the twentieth century a period known in the history of evolutionary science as the eclipse of Darwinism evolution s significance was questioned rethought and ultimately confined to the Neo Darwinist discourse with which we are familiar today Epic fiction participated in and was shaped by this shift Drawing on queer forms of sexuality to cultivate anti heroic and non progressive modes of telling national stories the genre contested reductive and reactionary forms of social

Darwinism The book describes how in doing so the genre asks us to revisit our assumptions about ethnolinguistics and organic nationalism It also models how the history of evolutionary thought can provide a new basis for comparing diverse modernisms and their peculiar nativisms Teaching Modernist Women's Writing in English Janine Utell,2021-04-25 Offers pedagogical techniques for teaching anglophone modernist writing by Virginia Woolf Gertrude Stein Dorothy Richardson Jean Rhys Nella Larsen and others Gives syllabus suggestions for undergraduate and graduate courses in literature and writing Covers topics such as feminism gender identity canon formation politics activism and war Suggests many digital humanities approaches Stitch, Unstitch Kristin Grogan,2025-08-26 The labor of literature is often thought of as a specialized craft distinct from everyday work In Stitch Unstitch Kristin Grogan traces an alternative vision of writing and the writer arguing that modernist poetry was deeply shaped by ordinary labor and the people who performed it This relationship provoked powerful political and aesthetic experiments and allowed modernist poets to imagine ways of life beyond the demand to earn a living Poetic form Grogan shows offers ways to reflect on the meaning and worth of labor particularly types of gendered labor that are typically unseen and undervalued Her fine grained readings locate modernist poetry within sites of social reproduction factory work craft labor and other forms of manual labor placing literary texts alongside objects such as constructivist posters and set design household notes and homemade books Grogan considers Ezra Pound s ideology of craft and artisanal labor Lola Ridge s immersion in the New York garment industry Langston Hughes s encounter with Soviet workers theater Gertrude Stein s gendered and queer domestic labors and Lorine Niedecker s employment as a hospital cleaner Blending Marxist and feminist theory with attentive close readings Stitch Unstitch is a revelatory materialist account of the values of poetry absence of clutter Paul Stephens,2020-03-24 An exploration of minimal writing texts generally shorter than a sentence as complex powerful literary and visual works In the 1960s and 70s minimal and conceptual artists stripped language down to its most basic components the word and the letter Barbara Kruger Jenny Holzer Carl Andre Lawrence Weiner and others built lucrative careers from text based art Meanwhile poets and writers created works of minimal writing visual texts generally shorter than a sentence One poem by Aram Saroyan reads in its entirety eyeeye In absence of clutter Paul Stephens offers the first comprehensive account of minimal writing arguing that it is equal in complexity and power to better known more commercial text based art Minimal writing Stephens writes can be beguilingly simple on the surface but can also offer iterative reading experiences on multiple levels from the fleeting to the ponderous absence of clutter for example the entire text of a poem by Robert Grenier is both expressive and self descriptive Stephens first sets out a theoretical framework for reading and viewing minimal writing and then offers close readings of works of minimal writing by Saroyan Grenier Norman Pritchard Natalie Czech and others He reverse engineers recent works by Jen Bervin Craig Dworkin and Christian B k that draw on molecular biology and explores print on demand books by Holly Melgard code poetry by Nick Montfort Twitter based work by Allison Parrish and the use of Instagram by Hans Ulrich Obrist and Saroyan Text it seems is becoming ever more prevalent in visual art meanwhile poems are getting shorter When reading has become scanning a screen and writing tapping out a text absence of clutter invites us to reflect on how we read see and pay attention

Reading the Illegible Craig Douglas Dworkin,2003 A poet takes another s text excises this prints over that cancels erases rearranges defaces and generally renders the original unreadable at least in its original terms What twentieth century writers and artists have meant by such appropriations and violations and how the illegible results are to be read is the subject Craig Dworkin takes up in this ambitious work Reading the Illegible explores such formal and structural manipulations in a wide range of exemplary cases John Cage s and Jackson MacLow s practices of writing through other texts the intentional cancellations of text by book artist Ken Campbell and conceptual artist Marcel Broodthaers Susan Howe s experiments in typography and cultural transmission visual complexity in Charles Bernstein Stan Brakhage and Rosemarie Waldrop the sedimentary texts of post minimalist artist Robert Smithson and poets Steve McCaffery and Christopher Dewdney the tactics of erasure employed by the poet Ronald Johnson and book artist Tom Phillips In his scrutiny of these works and with reference to a rich variety of contextual materials from popular and scientific texts to visual artworks political and cultural theories and experimental films Dworkin proposes a new way of apprehending the radical formalism of such unreadable texts His method seeks to unveil what Dworkin describes as the politics of the poem what is signified by its form enacted by its structures implicit in the philosophy of language how it positions its reader and other questions relating to the poem as material object In doing so he exposes the mechanics and function of truly radical formalism as a practice that moves beyond aesthetic considerations into the realm of politics and ideology Thus this book asks us to reconsider poetry as a physical act and helps us to see how the range of a text s linguistic and political maneuvers depends to a great extent on the material conditions of reading and writing as well as on the mechanics of reproduction
