Always Beginning Maxine Kumin, 2000 In her essays as with her Pulitzer Prize winning poetry Maxine Kumin speaks to the encounter with poetry poets and the details of country life In clear direct prose Kumin is equally at ease musing over her garden or discussing poetic form raising horses or critiquing the work of other poets For Kumin poetry is inseparable from daily life Whether remembering the early days of courtship with her husband who then worked at Los Alamos during the first nuclear tests or observing a grandchild learning to swim poetry is a natural part of the discussion as when during an MRI she recounts the healing role of memorized poems Lying in my MRI tomb and doggedly reciting the poem against the terrible rapping I realized what saved me
