Geography Paper Grade November 2013:

Education Reform and Internationalisation David Bridges,2014-08-28 This collection presents new investigations into the role of heritage languages and the correlation between culture and language from a pedagogic and cosmopolitical point of view

Running across Europe Jeroen Scheerder,Koen Breedveld,Julie Borgers,2015-01-15 Analysing in depth data from 11 European countries this collection explores the rise of the European running market the reasons and motives for running and the most important players in the field The volume sets out policy challenges and marketing possibilities and addresses issues of participation cost and health

Innovation Beyond Technology Sébastien Lechevalier,2019-08-02 The major purpose of this book is to clarify the importance of non technological factors in innovation to cope with contemporary complex societal issues while critically reconsidering the relations between science technology innovation STI and society For a few decades now innovation mainly derived from technological advancement has been considered a driving force of economic and societal development and prosperity With that in mind the following questions are dealt with in this book What are the non technological sources of innovation What can the progress of STI bring to humankind What roles will society be expected to play in the new model of innovation The authors argue that the majority of so called technological innovations are actually socio technical innovations requiring huge resources for financing activities adapting regulations designing adequate policy frames and shaping new uses and new users while having the appropriate interaction with society This book gathers multi and trans disciplinary approaches in innovation that go beyond technology and take into account the inter relations with social and human phenomena Illustrated by carefully chosen examples and based on broad and well informed analyses it is highly recommended to readers who seek an in depth and up to date integrated overview of innovation in its non technological dimensions

A University Education David Willetts,2017-11-24 Universities have a crucial role in the modern world In England entrance to universities is by nation wide competition which means English universities have an exceptional influence on schools a striking theme of the book This important book first investigates the university as an institution and then tracks the individual on their journey to and through university In A University Education David Willetts presents a compelling case for the ongoing importance of the university both as one of the great institutions of modern society and as a transformational experience for the individual The book also makes illuminating comparisons with higher education in other countries especially the US and Germany Drawing on his experience as UK Minister for Universities and Science from 2010 to 2014 the author offers a powerful account of the value of higher education and the case for more expansion He covers controversial issues in which he was involved from access for disadvantaged students to the introduction of 9 000 fees The final section addresses some of the big questions for the future such as the the relationship between universities and business especially in promoting innovation He argues that the two great contemporary trends of globalisation and technological innovation will both change the university significantly This is an authoritative account of

English universities setting them for the first time in their new legal and regulatory framework Discipline Problems Tadashi Dozono,2024-05-07 Angel a Black tenth grader at a New York City public school self identifies as a nerd and likes to learn But she s troubled that her history classes leave out events like the genocide and dispossession of Indigenous people in the Americas presenting a sugar coated image of the United States that is at odds with her everyday experience The history I learned in school is simpler she says The world I live in is a lot more complex Angel like every student interviewed in Discipline Problems has been identified by teachers as a troublemaker a student whose behavior disrupts classroom norms and interferes with instruction But her critiques of the curriculum she s taught speak to her curiosity and insight crucial foundations for understanding history Like many students who have been marginalized by systemic racism in American schools she exposes the shortcomings of her classrooms academic environments by challenging both the content and the methods of her education All too often these challenges are framed as troublemaking and the students are disciplined for acting out instead of being rewarded for their intellectual engagement Tadashi Dozono a professor of education and former high school social studies teacher takes seriously the often overlooked critiques that students of color who get labeled as troublemakers direct toward their high school history curriculum He reinterprets troublemaking usually cast as a behavioral deficit as an intellectual asset and form of reasoning that challenges the disciplining reason of classrooms where whiteness is valued over the histories and knowledge of people of color Dozono shows how what are traditionally framed as discipline problems can be seen through a different lens as responses to educational practices that marginalize non white students Discipline Problems reveals how students of color seek out alternate avenues for understanding their world and imagines a pedagogy that champions the curiosity intellect and knowledge of marginalized learners Ideology and Meaning-Making under the Putin Regime Marlene Laruelle,2025-01-14 Much has been written to try to understand the ideological characteristics of the current Russian government as well as what is happening inside the mind of Vladimir Putin Refusing pundits clich s that depict the Russian regime as either a cynical kleptocracy or the product of Putin s grand Machiavellian designs Ideology and Meaning Making under the Putin Regime offers a critical genealogy of ideology in Russia today Marlene Laruelle provides an innovative multi method analysis of the Russian regime s ideological production process and the ways it is operationalized in both domestic and foreign policies Ideology and Meaning Making under the Putin Regime reclaims the study of ideology as an unavoidable component of the tools we use to render the world intelligible and represents a significant contribution to the scholarly debate on the interaction between ideas and policy decisions By placing the current Russian regime into a broader context of different strains of strategic culture ideological interest groups and intellectual history this book gives readers key insights into how the Russo Ukrainian War became possible and the role ideology played in enabling it Minerals Yearbook 2012 Department of Interior,2016-12-15 This volume covering metals and minerals contains chapters on approximately 90 commodities In addition this volume has chapters on mining and quarrying trends and on statistical surveying methods used by Minerals Information plus a statistical summary Staff and contractors working for mining companies companies that use export import certain minerals and metals geologists and members of the general public interested in the properties and federal rules governing the definitions and extraction use of minerals and metals Additionally economists and commodity investors or financial planners may be interested in this volume Related products Minerals and Metals collection can be found here <https://bookstore.gpo.gov/catalog/science/technology/minerals/metals> Mining Drilling resources collection is available here <https://bookstore.gpo.gov/catalog/science/technology/mining/drilling> Other printed volumes in the Mineral Yearbook series can be found here <https://bookstore.gpo.gov/catalog/science/technology/minerals/metals/minerals/yearbook> South African national bibliography ,1999 Classified list with author and title index Sessional Papers, British Columbia British Columbia.
