China's peaceful rise Christopher Herrick,Zheya Gai,Surain Subramaniam,2016-09-26 Adopting a constructivist approach this book argues that China's prospects for achieving great power status peacefully depend more on perceptions of the country's development than on concrete measures of power or economic benefits Incorporating historical perceptions survey data and general analysis the authors explore Chinese foreign policies in international organisations international trade security relations and as a model for global governance as well as the reactions to those policies within the context of China's relations with Asian neighbours India Japan and the states of South east Asia existing international powers the European Union Russia and the United States and emergent trading partners Africa

The Return of Russia James Rodgers,2026-01-27 An incisive and engaging account of post Soviet Russia showing how and why the country has come into confrontation with the West The escalation of Russia's invasion of Ukraine in February 2022 triggered the most violent conflict seen on European soil for decades Millions of people have been displaced and thousands killed As the conflict continues many in the West are seeking to understand why Putin has followed his ambitions to such extreme ends James Rodgers examines the development of Russia's relationship with the West from the collapse of the Soviet Union in 1991 to the present day Rodgers argues that while Putin has long distrusted the West Western policies have made the situation much worse He shows that Putin's political career with its transformations from supportive ally to implacable critic of the West has been the defining influence on Russia's place in the contemporary world Following the invasion of Ukraine the West needs to develop a new understanding of Russia's views and possible actions rather than simply ignoring them as has been the case since the end of the Cold War

Redefining Genocide Doctor Damien Short,2016-06-15 In this highly controversial and original work Damien Short systematically rethinks how genocide is and should be defined Rather than focusing solely on a narrow conception of genocide as direct mass killing through close empirical analysis of a number of under discussed case studies including Palestine Sri Lanka Australia and Alberta Canada the book reveals the key role played by settler colonialism capitalism finite resources and the ecological crisis in driving genocidal social death on a global scale
