Creating Engaging Discussions Jennifer H. Herman,Linda B. Nilson,2023-07-03 If you have ever been apprehensive about initiating classroom discussion fearing silences the domination of a couple of speakers superficial contributions or off topic remarks this book provides strategies for creating a positive learning experience Jennifer H Herman and Linda B Nilson demonstrate how to create the conditions to facilitate deep and meaningful learning as well as to assess the effectiveness of discussions They identify analyze and solve common problems in both classroom and online discussions and in both small and large classes They take a direct practice oriented approach that in acknowledging common challenges provides principles guidance on design examples of activities and techniques and eight detailed case studies These cases demonstrate successful approaches that faculty across disciplines and from a variety of institutions have adopted in their face to face blended or online courses at the undergraduate or graduate level The case authors begin by describing the original pedagogical challenge they faced and explain how they addressed it and assessed the results of their innovation They also offer practical recommendations to readers who may want to try their strategies Intended for faculty this book will be equally valuable for educational developers who can use this resource in their programs and private consultations At the graduate level this book can serve as a text or workshop resource in college teaching courses and teaching assistant development programs The final chapter provides a set of resources and activities including discussion questions on the case studies writing prompts and jigsaw formats that are equally appropriate for individual study or for use in workshop environments You ll never again have to suffer such a profound silence that as described by a contributor to the book she could hear the crickets chirping outside Indigenous Celebrity Jennifer Adese,Robert Alexander Innes, 2021-04-09 Indigenous Celebrity speaks to the possibilities, challenges and consequences of popular forms of recognition, critically recasting the lens through which we understand Indigenous people's entanglements with celebrity. It presents a wide range of essays that explore the theoretical, material, social, cultural and political impacts of celebrity on and for Indigenous people. It questions and critiques the whitestream concept of celebrity and the very juxtaposition of Indigenous and celebrity, and casts a critical lens on celebrity culture's impact on Indigenous people. Indigenous people who willingly engage with celebrity culture or are drawn up into it enter into a complex terrain of social relations informed by layered dimensions of colonialism, racism, sexism, homophobia, transphobia and classism. Yet this reductive framing of celebrity does not account for the ways that Indigenous people's own worldviews inform Indigenous engagement with celebrity culture, or rather popular social and cultural forms of recognition. Indigenous Celebrity reorients conversations on Indigenous celebrity towards understanding how Indigenous people draw from nation-specific processes of respect and recognition while at the same time navigating external assumptions and expectations. This collection examines the relationship of Indigenous people to the concept of celebrity in past, present and ongoing contexts, identifying commonalities, tensions and possibilities.
