Four Exemplars of Ru □ (Confucianism) Paul J. D'Ambrosio, Geir Sigurðsson, Dimitra Amarantidou, Hans-Georg Moeller, 2025-08-15 This book discusses scholars who have all engaged in comparative philosophy projects many of whom first rose to fame because of their penetrating insights into the similarities and differences in Western and Chinese thought They all went beyond simply looking at how one thinker one school or one tradition relates to another each draws on sources from China and the West However their projects from role ethics to concrete metaphysics from critiquing individualism to balancing harmony and justice are attempts at re evaluating the way we view the world and live our lives These projects are systematic thorough tong and comprehensive descriptions of ourselves the world and our interactions with others They are all comparative but on top of this they also aim at making a point that transcends their comparisons The book thus shows that these great thinkers draw on a multiplicity of resources and while they might find some ideas closer to home than others comparison is a necessary constant Using traditional Confucian vocabulary this type of philosophizing is described as practicing xue normally understood as studying or learning But it also means to copy imitate model or emulate In the process of xue one imitates but with a nod to differences This book honors four models of such an attitude to xue In its examination of some of the most influential scholars in Chinese thought this is a seminal book for scholars and students in Chinese and comparative philosophy Handbook on the Geographies of Money and Finance Ron Martin, Jane Pollard, 2017-03-31 The aim of this timely work which appears in the wake of the worst global financial crisis since the late 1920s is to bring together high quality research based contributions from leading international scholars involved in constructing a geographical perspective on money Topics covered include the crisis the spatial circuits of finance regulation mainstream financial markets banking equity etc through to the various alternative and disruptive forms of money that have arisen in recent years It will be of interest to geographers political scientists sociologists economists planners and all those interested in how money shapes and reshapes socio economic space and conditions local and regional development Genomic Data Sharing Jennifer B. McCormick, Jyotishman Pathak, 2022-11-29 Genomic Data Sharing Case Studies Challenges and Opportunities for Precision Medicine provides a comprehensive overview of current and emerging issues in genomic data sharing In this book international leaders in genomic data examine these issues in depth offering practical case studies that highlight key successes challenges and opportunities Sections discuss the eMERGE Network Undiagnosed Disease Network Vanderbilt Biobank Marshfield Clinic Biobank Minnesota Authorization Rochester Epidemiology Project NIH sponsored biobanks GINA and Global Alliance for Genomics and Health GA4GH In addition to these perspectives from the frontlines the book also provides succinct overviews of ethical legal social and IT challenges Clinician investigators clinicians affiliated with academic medical centers policymakers and regulators will also gain insights that will allow them to navigate the increasingly complex ethical social and clinical landscape of genomic data sharing Covers both technical and ELSI ethical legal and social implications perspectives on genomic data sharing Includes applied case studies of existing genomic data sharing consortia including the eMERGE Network Undiagnosed Disease Network and the Global Alliance for Genomics and Health GA4GH among others Features chapter contributions from international leaders in genomic data sharing Handbook of Disaster Research Havidán Rodríguez, William Donner, Joseph E. Trainor, 2017-11-16 This timely Handbook is based on the principle that disasters are social constructions and focuses on social science disaster research It provides an interdisciplinary approach to disasters with theoretical methodological and practical applications Attention is given to conceptual issues dealing with the concept disaster and to methodological issues relating to research on disasters These include Geographic Information Systems as a useful research tool and its implications for future research This seminal work is the first interdisciplinary collection of disaster research as it stands now while outlining how the field will continue to grow

Collecting Activism, Archiving Occupy Wall Street Kylie Message, 2019-09-10 Collecting Activism Archiving Occupy Wall Street explores the material collections produced by participants of Occupy Wall Street in 2011 that bear witness to the experience and agency of the 99% Examining processes of collection development as a lens through which to investigate the sociology of protest and reform movements the book questions what contribution a dual study of the material culture of dissent and the production of a collection hosting the material culture of dissent might offer to a range of disciplines and practices It asks if and how a collections based study can test the propositions tactics and limits of activism from archival museological and political perspectives Collecting Activism Archiving Occupy Wall Street draws from interdisciplinary fields including museum studies collection studies archive studies cultural studies and public history It will be a valuable resource for scholars and practitioners engaged with contemporary cause based collecting activist archiving public history and the cultural politics and sociology of social reform movements It models strategies for activating historical archives and collections based data and for engaging with autoethnographic records to represent and analyze the material residue of protest and reform movements today Accomplishing Climate Governance Harriet Bulkeley, 2016 This book provides original critical insights into climate politics and new directions for society s response for researchers advanced students and policy makers

Urban Regeneration and Neoliberalism Clare Kinsella, 2020-10-29 This book explores the concept of home in Liverpool over phases of regeneration following the Second World War Using qualitative research in the oral history tradition it explores what the author conceptualises as forward facing regeneration in the period up to the 1980s and neoliberal regeneration interventions that prioritise the past from the 1980s to the present The author examines how the shift towards city centre focused redevelopment and event led initiatives has implications for the way residents make sense of their conceptualisations of home and demonstrates how the shift in regeneration focus discourse and practice away from Liverpool s neighbourhood districts and towards the city centre has produced changes in the ways that residents identify with neighbourhoods and the city centre with prominence being given to the latter Employing Pierre Bourdieu s concepts of habitus and field as mechanisms for understanding different senses of home and shifts from localised views to globalised views this book will appeal to those with interests in urban sociology regeneration geography sociology home cultures and cities
