Teaching Reading Comprehension to English Learners in Secondary Schools: A Research-Based Approach Cekiso, Madoda, Olifant, Florence, Mokhtari, Kouider, 2025-04-23

Teaching reading comprehension to English learners ELs in secondary schools presents unique challenges as these students must navigate the complexities of academic texts and the intricacies of language acquisition Effective instruction requires a research based approach that considers the diverse linguistic cultural and cognitive backgrounds of these learners Recent studies highlight the importance of integrating strategies that build both language proficiency and content knowledge essential for helping ELs develop the skills needed to comprehend complex materials Fostering metacognitive awareness through strategies like summarizing questioning and making connections can empower students to become active and strategic readers This approach recognizes the need for a supportive inclusive classroom environment that encourages language development while promoting academic achievement in content areas Further research may help educators provide English learners with the tools to thrive as capable readers in secondary school Teaching Reading Comprehension to English Learners in Secondary School A Research Based Approach explores various aspects of teaching reading comprehension to English Second Language ESL learners in secondary schools It examines current challenges and evidence based strategies in reading comprehension This book covers topics such as language learning reading strategies and teacher training and is a useful resource for academicians researchers and scientists

Twenty-Twenty Hindsight Mosiuoa Sekese, 2013-05-16 Twenty twenty hindsight means perfect understanding of events only after they have happened In his book Mosiuoa Sekese looks back on his life in the old and new South Africa and gives his own perceptive interpretation of the past events Sekese suffered discrimination and prejudice under the old apartheid government as well as the new democratic regime His story is highly personal but provides the reader with unique insights into the social and educational challenges that South Africa continues to grapple with I had a quick read and I find the content heartbreaking but fascinating Especially as a white South African you are drawing me into a world that I always knew existed but which few people have the guts and conviction to paint into words Louise Heystek Emerton CEO Wordwise Khuluma Awethu

Visualisation and Epistemological Access to Mathematics Education in Southern Africa Marc Schäfer, 2023-04-27 This book demonstrates that using visualisation processes in mathematics education can help to enhance teaching and learning and bridge the inequality gap that exists between well resourced and under resourced schools in Southern Africa Drawing on classroom research conducted in the Southern African region it examines how epistemological access in a context of gross inequality can be constructively addressed by providing research based solutions and recommendations The book outlines the visualisation process as an integral but often overlooked process of mathematics teaching and learning It goes beyond the traditional understanding of visualisation processes such as picture forming and using tools and considers visualisation processes that are semiotic in nature and includes actions such as gestures in combination with language It adds value to the visualisation in mathematics education research discourse and deliberation in Africa With a unique focus on Southern Africa and open avenues for further research and collaboration in the region it will be a highly relevant reading for researchers academics and post graduate students of mathematics education comparative education and social justice education
