From Belonging to Belief Julie McBrien, 2017-06-08 From Belonging to Belief presents a nuanced ethnographic study of Islam and secularism in post Soviet Central Asia as seen from the small town of Bazaar Korgon in southern Kyrgyzstan Opening with the juxtaposition of a statue of Lenin and a mosque in the town square Julie McBrien proceeds to peel away the multiple layers that have shaped the return of public Islam in the region She explores belief and nonbelief varying practices of Islam discourses of extremism and the role of the state to elucidate the everyday experiences of Bazaar Korgonians McBrien shows how Islam is explored lived and debated in both conventional and novel sites a Soviet era cleric who continues to hold great influence popular television programs religious instruction at wedding parties clothing celebrations and others Through ethnographic research McBrien reveals how moving toward Islam is not a simple step but rather a deliberate and personal journey of experimentation testing and knowledge acquisition Moreover she argues that religion is not always a matter of belief sometimes it is essentially about belonging From Belonging to Belief offers an important corrective to studies that focus only on the pious turns among Muslims in Central Asia and instead shows the complex process of evolving religion in a region that has experienced both Soviet atheism and post Soviet secularism each of which has profoundly formed the way Muslims interpret and live Islam

Connecting the Nation Paul Ashton, Tracy Ireland, Jaya Keaney, Alison Wain, Mitchell Whitelaw, 2017-01-01 Aviation has played an important part in shaping Australia's culture and history through the course of the twentieth century. Australia embraced aviation from its earliest days, eagerly responding to its potential to cover a challenging country, to bring far-flung communities closer and to provide services that could not be delivered any other way. Add the romance of pioneer heroes, the vital role of aviation in wartime and the capacity to deliver aid to people in need in Australia and beyond, and it is clear why aviation is at the heart of Australia's recent history. This book aims to set out the major themes that characterise Australia's aviation history for a broad audience and to provide a foundation for a broader discussion and for further research about how aviation transformed Australia. Connecting the Nation is a vital and timely introduction to the history of civil aviation in Australia as we prepare for the centenary of civil aviation services in 2020. The Blitz and its Legacy Peter J. Larkham, 2016-12-05. Triggered in part by contemporary experiences in the Balkans, the Middle East and elsewhere, there has been a rise in interest in the Blitz and the subsequent reconstruction of cities, especially as many of the buildings and areas rebuilt after the Second World War are now facing demolition and reconstruction in their turn. Drawing together leading scholars and new researchers from across the fields of planning, history, architecture and geography, this volume presents an historical and cultural commentary on the immediate and longer-term impacts of wartime destruction. The book's contents in 14 chapters cover the spread of themes from experiencing the war to reconstruction and its experiences, and although many chapters draw upon the UK experience, there is deliberate inclusion of some material from mainland Europe and Japan to emphasise that the experiences, processes and products are not London-specific. A comparative book tracing destruction to reconstruction is a relative rarity and yet of the utmost importance in possessing wider relevance to post-disaster reconstructions. The Blitz and Its Legacy is a fascinating volume which includes war experiences, of destruction, architecture, urban design, the political process of planning and reconstruction, and also popular perceptions of rebuilding. Its findings provide very timely lessons which highlight the value of learning from historical precedent. Slow Urbicide Dorota Golańska, 2022-11-22. The book presents a new materialist understanding of acts of deliberate destruction of the built environment and specifically of the politics of aggressive spatial containment and regularization of urbanity employed within the conflict in Israel/Palestine. Building on recent scholarship on slow violence and urbicidal policies, it discusses the different dimensions of the violence against the urban space as well as exposes the complex material-semiotic character of the urban territory and of its destruction. By referring to the concepts of ethno-territoriality and the right to the city, the book aims to generate an enhanced understanding of problems situated at the overlap of urban studies and investigations of state-sponsored violence, focusing specifically on issues related to urban warfare. Adopting a new materialist perspective, the book is a searing examination of political violence in our times. The volume will be of great interest to scholars and researchers of political science, international relations, cultural studies and urban studies. It will also appeal to NGO professionals and activists across the world. The Times Index, 2008. Indexes the Times and its supplements. Quasi-state Entities and International Criminal Justice Ernst Dijkhoorn, 2017-02-17 This book explores the intended and unintended impact of international criminal justice on the legitimacy of quasi state entities QSEs In order to do so the concept of quasi state entity is introduced to distinguish actors in statehood conflicts that aspire to statehood and fulfil statehood functions to a greater or lesser degree including the capacity and willingness to deploy armed force but lack the status of sovereign statehood This work explores the ability of QSEs to create and maintain legitimacy for their actions institutions and statehood projects in various constituencies simultaneously It looks at how legitimacy is a prerequisite for success of QSEs and using critical legitimacy theory assesses the legitimating narratives of QSEs and their statehood adversaries The book links international criminal justice to statehood projects of QSEs and their success and legitimacy It looks at the effects of international criminal justice on the ability to create and maintain legitimacy of QSEs an approach that leads to new insights regarding international courts and tribunals as entities competing with states over statehood functions that increasingly have to take the legal implications of their actions into consideration Most important a close assessment of the legitimising narratives of QSEs counter narratives and the messages sent by international criminal justice with which QSEs have to deal and their ability to overcome legitimacy crises provides insight on QSEs and the complex processes of legitimation This book will be of much interest to students of international criminal justice political violence security studies and IR
