

CHECKS AND BALANCES: The Separation of Powers

The United States Constitution divides the federal government into three branches. The legislative branch makes laws, the executive branch carries out laws, and the judicial branch evaluates laws. This organization is referred to as the separation of powers. Each branch of government has its own unique powers. Each branch also has specific powers that act to "check," or limit, the other branches so no one branch gets too powerful. Read the chart for examples of how these checks and balances work! Then answer the questions on page 2.
