

Unit 1 Career and subject choice

It is important to think about what kind of work you will do one day. It is part of planning for your future. Although you will probably change your mind several times between now and when you actually choose a final career, you need to think out as much as you can in order to get that job one day.

Activity 1 What will I be one day?

- For this activity, you or your teacher will bring the sections of the newspaper that advertises jobs to school.
- In a group, read this section and choose one job that appeals to you.
- Answer these questions about the job:
 - Do you need a specific qualification to be able to apply for this job?
 - If yes, what is the qualification?
 - Where would you study to qualify?
 - What school subjects would you need to take in Grades 10 to 12 to be able to study or train for this job?

You will see from this activity that planning and preparing your future needs to start now. The world of work is changing every day. You will need to be well-informed to keep up with the new jobs and careers which are available.

Careers related to different subjects

A subject studied at school level could lead to a career in that subject area. Some careers would require further study at tertiary level before you would be able to work. Some school subjects, especially those with a large practical component may prepare you for the world of work straight after Grade 12.

Activity 2 Match jobs and subjects

- In the table on the opposite page, you will see which careers are available for certain subject choices. Read through the list with a partner.
- If there are any subjects that you have never heard of, discuss what you will learn in this subject with your partner and, if you are not sure, check with your teacher.
- If there are some jobs that you have never heard of, discuss with your partner what you think this work entails and then check with your teacher.
- Look at the subjects required for the careers that you discussed, and think about how these subjects relate to the work.
