Teaching Technology in Libraries Carol Smallwood, Lura Sanborn, 2017-02-06 Libraries are charged with fostering new skills and capabilities, a challenging task in an era of rapid technological change. Developing new ways of teaching and learning within budget and time constraints is the key to keeping up to date. Written by librarians, this collection of new essays describes an array of technology outreach and instruction programs from the theoretical to the practical for public, academic, and school libraries based on case studies and discussions of methodology. Content includes out-of-the-box lessons, outreach successes, and technology instruction programs applicable to patrons and staff at public, academic, and school libraries.
