Teaching Language and Literacy James F. Christie, Billie Enz, Carol Vukelich, 2003. The unique focus of this text integrates constructivist learning, diversity, and instruction-based assessment and helps translate principles into practice. The central underlying thesis of Teaching Language and Literacy is that children are at the center of all good language and literacy teaching. The text, with broad coverage of preschool through the elementary grades, advocates an appreciation of student diversity and an implementation of assessment strategies relating to specific learning teaching events. The text describes how children construct their own knowledge about oral and written language by engaging in integrated, meaningful, and functional activities with other people in a variety of contexts. It then goes one step further, describing how teachers can design authentic classroom reasons for using oral and written language. In keeping with the text's theme, illustrations of how teachers can work effectively with diverse learners appear throughout the text In addition instructionally linked assessment is another important topic central to the text Learning and Leading with Technology,2000 First Grade Writing Paper with Lines Bright Child Workbooks,2019-04-14 Fantastically helpful book for children of all ages in order to help teach them correct penmanship and improve their writing skills 80 pages of blank lined handwriting sheets allow your child to grow in confidence and excel in pen pencil grip and control Large size of 8 5x11 provides enough space for writing practice Fun and colorful cover design and cute and unique doodles inside the book to help keep your child excited interest and motivated whilst practicing Don t forget to visit our AUTHOR PAGE to take a sneak peek at all of the other books that we have on offer Nonfiction Author Studies in the Elementary Classroom Carol Brennan Jenkins,Deborah Jean Downs White,2007 If you ve experienced the delight and wonderment that children bring to nonfiction read alouds take the next step and invite nonfiction authors into your classroom through author study Like its fiction counterpart nonfiction author studies engage students deeply and help them interact with texts in multiple ways and Nonfiction Author Studies in the Elementary Classroom shows you how to guide and support these interactions while honoring readers fascination with the world around them Drawing on the latest research and the experiences of classroom teachers Carol Brennan Jenkins and Deborah White make the case for studying nonfiction writers and their books with zeal and rigor They give you a strong rationale for nonfiction author study outlining how and why it s effective and what its principal goals are Then they turn over the discussion to five teachers who showcase units they developed and implemented in their own classrooms Each unit investigates a well known and well loved nonfiction author Gail Gibbons The Pumpkin Book Ann Morris On the Go Teamwork Play and What Was It Like Grandma Jim Arnosky The All About series Jean Fritz Can t You Make Them Behave King George and George Washington s Mother Sandra Markle Outside and Inside Snakes Each author study takes you step by step through its key questions themes and instructional moments providing everything you ll need along the way including worksheets booklists biographical information web based resources student samples curriculum maps and links to literacy standards Author study isn t just for fiction anymore Get ready to find out why Read the wisdom of practicing teachers and explore what nonfiction author study can do for you Pick up Nonfiction Author Studies in the Elementary Classroom teach its units and find a fresh way to deepen your readers connection to the captivating world of nonfiction texts
